Continental Coal Limited (ASX:CCC) is a new Junior South African coal producer. Continental has a portfolio of producing and advanced coal projects located in South Africa's major coal fields. Following the commencement of production at the Vlakvarkfontein coal mine in May 2010, Continental concluded the final agreements in September 2010 to acquire unlisted South African coal production company Mashala Resources. The acquisition provides Continental with immediate export coal production from the Ferreira open cast mine, Richards Bay Coal Terminal (RBCT) allocation and Transnet rail contracts in place and a broad project portfolio with a further five coal projects with the potential to be developed into production by 2015. Continental was formed to take advantage of the robust domestic and global demand for coal, with particular focus on South Africa, Botswana, Mozambique and Zimbabwe.
