ANNUAL REPORT – TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

It has come to the Company's attention that there is a typographical error in the Chairman's Report on page 1 of the Annual Report which was dispatched to shareholders, and lodged with the ASX, on 15 October 2010.

The commentary states in the final sentence of the third paragraph that "A final dividend of 12 CPS was declared subsequent to balance date." However, the cents per share (CPS) is missing a decimal point and should in fact read "1.2 CPS" as stated in all other ASX announcements referring to the dividend and in dividend advices sent to shareholders on payment date 5 October 2010.
