About Galaxy (ASX: GXY)

Galaxy Resources is a Western Australian S&P / ASX 300 Index company which is soon to become one of the world's leading producers of lithium – the essential component for powering the world's fast expanding fleet of hybrid and electric cars.

By 2010, GXY's Mt Cattlin mine will be the world's second largest hard rock producer of lithium and, through the development of its value adding lithium carbonate plant (17,000 tpa), the Company will be the largest and lowest cost lithium producer in China.

Lithium concentrate and lithium carbonate materials are forecast to be in short supply against high future demand due to advances in long life batteries and sophisticated electronics including mobile phones and computers.

Galaxy Resources has positioned itself to meet this lithium future by not only mining the lithium but by downstream processing to supply lithium carbonate to the lucrative Asian market

1 Purpose

1.1 Scope of this document

This policy summarises the law relating to insider trading and sets out the trading policy of Galaxy Resources Limited ("Company") on buying and selling securities of the Company, including shares and options ("Securities").

1.2 Who does the trading policy apply to?

The Company's Board of Directors has adopted this trading policy which applies to all directors, officers, senior management and other employees of the Company ("Staff").

It is important to remember that although this trading policy only applies to the persons specified above, the insider trading prohibitions set out in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cwlth) ("Corporations Act") and discussed in Part 2 below, apply to all persons (including members of your family).

1.3 Further advice

If you do not understand the summary of the law relating to insider trading set out below or this trading policy, or if you are confused as to whether the law applies to you, please contact the Company Secretary. You may wish to seek your own professional legal advice before dealing in the Company's Securities.

2 Prohibited trading

2.1 The insider trading prohibitions

If you have Inside Information (as defined in paragraph 2.2 below) relating to the Company it is illegal for you to:

- (a) deal in (that is, apply for, acquire or dispose of) the Company's Securities or enter into an agreement to do so;
- (b) procure another person to apply for, acquire or dispose of the Company's Securities or enter into an agreement to do so; or
- (c) directly or indirectly communicate, or cause to be communicated, that information to any other person if you know, or ought reasonably to know, that the person would or would be likely to use the information to engage in the activities specified in paragraphs (a) or (b) above.

These prohibitions apply equally to the application for, grant, exercise or transfer of an option over the Company's Securities.

It does not matter how or in what capacity you become aware of the Inside Information. It does not have to be obtained from the Company to constitute Inside Information.

You cannot avoid the insider trading prohibition by arranging for a member of your family or a friend to deal in the Company's Securities nor may you give "tips" concerning Inside Information relating to the Company to others.

2.2 What is Inside Information?

"Inside Information" is information relating to the Company which is not generally available but, if the information were generally available, would be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's Securities. Inside Information can include matters of speculation or supposition and matters relating to intentions or likely intentions of a person.

Information is regarded as being likely to have a material effect if it would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities or other traded financial products in deciding whether or not to deal in the Company's Securities.

Examples of Inside Information could be:

- (a) the financial performance of the Company against its budget;
- (b) changes in the Company's actual or anticipated financial condition or business performance;
- (c) changes in the capital structure of the Company, including proposals to raise additional equity or borrowings;
- (d) proposed changes in the nature of the business of the Company;
- (e) changes to the Board of Directors or significant changes in senior management;
- (f) an undisclosed significant change in the Company's market share;
- (g) likely or actual entry into, or loss of, a material contract;
- (h) material acquisitions or sales of assets by the Company; or
- (i) a material claim against the Company or other unexpected liability.

2.3 When is information generally available?

Information is generally available if:

- (a) it consists of readily observable matter or deductions;
- (b) it has been brought to the attention of investors through an announcement to ASX Limited ("ASX") or otherwise similarly brought to the attention of investors who commonly invest in securities, and a reasonable period has elapsed since it was announced or brought to investors' attention; or
- (c) it consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b) above.

Examples of possible readily observable matters are:

- (a) a change in legislation which will affect the Company's ability to make certain types of investments; or
- (b) a severe downturn in global securities markets.

2.4 What are the consequences if you breach the insider trading prohibitions?

Breach of the insider trading laws may subject you to:

- (a) criminal liability - penalties include heavy fines and imprisonment; and
- (b) civil liability - you can be sued by another party or the Company for any loss suffered as a result of illegal trading activities.

Breach of the law or this trading policy or both will also be regarded by the Company as serious misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action or dismissal.

3 Trading Policy

3.1 What does this trading policy apply to?

These general prohibitions are overriding obligations and, subject to paragraph 3.4, apply at all times, despite all other terms of this trading policy.

3.3 Trading windows

The notification must state that the proposed dealing in the Company's Securities is not as a result of access to, nor the receipt of, Inside Information.

Notification of any dealing in the Company's Securities under this paragraph and the completion of Part B of the Notification Form to Deal in the Company's Securities does not constitute approval of the dealing by or on behalf of the Company.

3.6 Confirmation

In addition to providing advance notice under paragraph 3.5, Designated Persons must confirm in writing to the relevant Notification Officer(s) when the dealing in the Company's Securities has occurred, the number of Securities affected and the relevant parties to the dealing.

3.7 Trading with permission

If there are:

- (a) exceptional circumstances; and
- (b) the person concerned declares that they do not possess any Inside Information, then approval may be given by the Board of Directors or the Chairman, as appropriate, in their discretion to allow a Designated Person to deal outside a trading window.

Any such approval must be obtained in advance. It cannot be given after the event.

A dealing for which approval is given remains subject to the notice requirements of paragraphs 3.5 and 3.6.
