ASX Release

Energy One Limited enters into agreement with Loy Yang Marketing Management Company for the provision of an Energy Trading & Risk Management (ETRM) Solution.

Energy One Limited (ASX: EOL) is pleased to announce it has executed an agreement with Loy Yang Marketing Management Company Pty Ltd (LYMMCo) for the licensing, implementation and multi-year support of Energy One Trading, EOL's best-of-breed Energy Trading and Risk Management (ETRM) Solution.

LYMMCo is the marketing arm for Loy Yang Power, a Victorian-based power generator and one of Australia's largest power suppliers. With an installed capacity of 2,200MW and supplying a third of Victoria's electricity needs, Loy Yang Power plays a significant role in meeting the energy security requirements of South Eastern Australia.

Energy One's ETRM system software was selected after a thorough competitive review and will provide market analytics, deal capture, settlements and risk management functionality to LYMMCo's team of energy experts. The objective is to drive profitability and reduce risk while improving auditability of the company's wholesale electricity trading operations.

Energy One has been actively marketing its industry leading solutions and is pleased with this development. This announcement continues to demonstrate Energy One's commitment to developing and delivering quality enterprise business tools to major energy sector clients.
