ASX Release

Court Approval of Settlement of Class Actions

On 10 May 2011 OZ Minerals announced that it had reached agreement to settle the two class actions brought against it by Maurice Blackburn and Slater & Gordon on behalf of certain shareholders who acquired shares in 2008. Settlement was conditional upon approval of the Court.

The Court granted its approval today to the settlement. Settlement of the actions will now be administered in accordance with the terms of a Scheme.

As a result of the Federal Court approval, the class actions against OZ Minerals have been dismissed without admission of liability by the Company.
