

ASX RELEASE

24 November 2011

Launch of Fixed Odds Betting in Queensland and South Australia

Two Way Limited is pleased to announce that as of today, fixed odds betting is available via its TV wagering service in Queensland and South Australia.

This follows on from the Company's announcement yesterday that approval has been granted for this exciting new feature. As stated in that announcement, Two Way had already completed all of the necessary technical work.

The TV wagering service now offers users the option of placing tote or fixed odds bets in New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland and South Australia. All betting is done via the user's account with their local State TAB operator (Tabcorp or TattsBet). Currently tote odds betting is also offered in Western Australia, for users with a RWWA account.

Fixed odds betting has been the fastest growing form of betting for all TAB operators in recent years. The ability to choose between tote and fixed odds is a unique and patented feature of Two Way's TV wagering technology.
