MAp

Sydney Airport CFO to be Appointed MAp CFO

MAp today advises that Tim Finlayson will be appointed MAp Chief Financial Officer (CFO) effective from 1 January 2012. This follows the announcement on 20 July that Keith Irving would step down as MAp's CFO following the successful asset swap transaction with Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan and the subsequent Simplification.

Mr Finlayson is currently CFO of Sydney Airport. He will combine his new role as MAp CFO with his Sydney Airport duties. This continues the integration of the MAp and Sydney Airport management teams.

The board and management of MAp thanked Mr Irving for his contribution to the business over the past five years. MAp Chief Executive Officer Kerrie Mather said, "Keith has made a significant contribution to MAp during a period of substantial change."

Mr Irving said, "Over the past five years, financial markets have presented many challenges and opportunities. At the same time MAp has implemented a significant program of transition. I am proud of the proactive way in which we have pursued value for investors. I wish my colleagues every success as the integration with Sydney Airport continues."

Mr Finlayson was appointed CFO of Sydney Airport in October 2010, having previously been CFO of Hutchison Telecommunications Australia. He is a chartered accountant and began his career with PricewaterhouseCoopers.
