Resolution of Inquiry

Retail Food Group Limited (RFG) advises that the ACCC's inquiries concerning the matters referred to in the Company's Announcement of 4 July 2012 have been resolved following RFG's provision of an undertaking, pursuant to Section 87B of the Competition & Consumer Act 2010, that it will:

- refrain from making any representations, without a reasonable basis, that prices have increased due to the carbon price;
- refrain from making any communications that may encourage or induce Brumby's Bakery franchisees from making representations to consumers, without a reasonable basis, that retail prices have increased due to the carbon price; and
- cause its subsidiaries to comply with the above.
