2nd September 2013 ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Swick – Newmont APAC drilling contract renewal

Western Australia – (Sep 2, 2013) – Swick Mining Services Limited ("Swick" or "the Company"; ASX: SWK), announces that its world leading underground diamond drilling division has had its Newmont APAC drilling contract renewed for a further three years.

Swick has provided drilling services at Newmont's underground operations at Jundee Gold Mine in Western Australia, and the Granites Gold Mine in the Northern Territory since 2007.

Managing Director Kent Swick states "Swick is very proud to be selected as the successful tenderer for this large contract and looks forward to continuing the very strong business partnership with Newmont, one of the world's leading mining houses. Newmont have been a cornerstone client of Swick's for many years and a raft of safety and productivity initiatives in our business have been borne by our close working relationship and mutual desire to be as efficient as possible."

Swick currently has a total of 12 underground rigs deployed between the two sites on a full time basis.
