Share Trading Policy

1. Securities Trading Policy

Securities of the Company are listed on ASX.

This policy outlines:

- (a) when Key Management Personnel (KMP), other Employees and consultants (together, "Relevant Persons") may deal in Company Securities;
- (b) when Relevant Persons may deal in listed securities of another entity (because they may obtain Inside Information about another entity's securities while performing their duties for the Group); and
- (c) procedures to reduce the risk of insider trading.

This Securities Trading Policy has been prepared to address the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules which require the Company to provide a framework to Relevant Persons when Dealing in Securities of the Company. The Securities Trading Policy has been prepared taking into consideration the following:

- (a) the size, nature and stage of the development of the Company's resource projects (see below for further details);
- (b) obligations under the Corporations Act not to Deal in Company Securities whilst in possession of Inside Information;
- (c) rights of shareholders under the Constitution of the Company to freely trade their shares; and
- (d) contractual and statutory rights embedded in the Securities.

As noted above, the Company's Securities Trading Policy has been prepared to be consistent with the stage of development of the Company. As the Company is in the exploration phase, key Inside Information is likely to be comprised of results from feasibility studies, exploration and corporate activities. Accordingly, the Closed Periods are based around the release of this information, rather than the release of financial reports. This aspect of the Company's Securities Trading Policy may change should the stage of development of the Company change in the future.

All Relevant Persons are required to complete the Form of Acknowledgment in Schedule 5 of this Policy once they have read this Policy and return it to the Company Secretary.

1.2 BREACH OF POLICY

A breach of this Policy by a Relevant Person is serious and may lead to disciplinary action, including dismissal in serious cases. It may also be a breach of the law.

Insider trading is a serious matter which is a criminal offence. It is punishable by substantial fines or imprisonment or both.

Insider trading may also attract civil penalties. A court may impose substantial pecuniary penalties for insider trading and order payment of compensation to persons who suffer loss or damage because of insider trading.

1.3 WHEN A RELEVANT PERSON MAY DEAL

Subject to the requirements of this Policy (including Closed Periods), a Relevant Person may deal in Company Securities or Securities of a Transaction Entity if he or she does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity.

1.4 WHEN A RELEVANT PERSON MAY NOT DEAL

A Relevant Person may not Deal or procure another person to Deal in the Securities of a Transaction Entity if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to the Securities of a Transaction Entity.

Relevant Persons are prohibited at all times from Dealing in financial products issued or created over or in respect of the Company's Securities.

Relevant Persons are prohibited at all times from entering into margin lending or similar arrangements in respect to Company Securities they hold or in which they have a Relevant Interest.

1.6 EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

The Approving Officer may give clearance during a Closed Period for a Relevant Person to sell (but not buy) Company Securities in Exceptional Circumstances.

The Approving Officer may not give clearance under the exception in the paragraph above if there is a matter about which there is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities (whether or not the Relevant Person knows about the matter) when the Relevant Person requests clearance or proposes to Deal in Company Securities.

The Relevant Person seeking clearance to Deal in Securities must outline in writing to the Approving Officer the circumstances of their severe financial hardship or as to why their circumstances are otherwise exceptional and that the proposed Dealing in the Securities is the only reasonable course of action available.

The Approving Officer will decide if circumstances are exceptional.

1.7 CLEARANCE FROM THE APPROVING OFFICER

At least two Business Days prior to when a Relevant Person intends to Deal in Securities, the Relevant Person must first inform the Approving Officer (and at the same time the Company Secretary), by submitting a completed Securities Trading Request Form (see Schedule 6). If the Relevant Person is not able to fax or email a scanned copy of the Securities Trading Request Form, then the Relevant Person may send an email with the same information in it to the Approving Officer.

The Approving Officer must approve or reject the Securities Trading Request as soon as practicable (generally within two Business Days). The Relevant Person must not Deal in Company Securities until it has received the clearance from the Approving Officer.

Subject to clause 1.6, the Approving Officer may not give clearance if:

- (b) the Securities Trading Request Form is lodged during a Closed Period;
- (c) the Proposed Dealing is during a Closed Period; and
- (d) the Approving Officer has any other reason to believe that the proposed Dealing breaches this policy.

In making a determination under (a) above about the existence of Inside Information, the Approving Officer should exercise caution and refuse the clearance if there is any possibility that Inside Information may exist.

Irrespective of any clearances given under this Policy, the Relevant Person is not to Deal in Company Securities while in possession of Inside Information.

The Approving Officer must:

- (e) keep a written record of:
