360 CAPITAL GROUP (TGP)
POST TRANSACTION UPDATE

The Acquisition of 360 Capital Property Group by Trafalgar Corporate Group was completed on 2 October 2013 with the group recommencing trading on the ASX on 8 October 2013 as 360 Capital Group ("360 Capital" or ASX code: "TGP").

The office consolidation is now complete with all staff now located at 360 Capital offices and the former Trafalgar Corporate Group tenancy vacated with no further costs incurred.

Emma Shipley, the current 360 Capital Chief Financial Officer who joined the group in 2011, has advised she will leave 360 Capital at the end of December 2013. Having successfully overseen the financial transition of the business from the purchase of Becton Funds Management to the now ASX-listed group, Emma has decided to look for challenges in which to utilise her broad and detailed financial management skills. 360 Capital thanks Emma for her significant contribution and wishes her well for the future.

Glenn Butterworth has been appointed as the new 360 Capital Chief Financial Officer effective from his commencement date in December 2013. Glenn will be responsible for all 360 Capital's financial management activities and will be a key executive within the business. Glenn joins 360 Capital from Mirvac where he has spent the last 11 years, most recently as Financial Controller of the Mirvac's Investment Division for the last 7 years. Glenn was responsible for Mirvac Property Trust, listed and wholesale managed funds and partnership structures and will bring a wealth of transactional and financial management experience from the listed environment to 360 Capital.

Troy Thompson has joined 360 Capital from Trafalgar Corporate Group as Financial Controller. Troy was with Trafalgar for 7 years and has an in-depth knowledge of all financial management facets of the previous business. Troy will work with Glenn and the current finance and accounting team across all 360 Capital's business lines.

Peter Norris, the previous Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer of Trafalgar Corporate Group, joins 360 Capital until the end of 2013 where his primary focus will be the transition of the former Trafalgar business entities into 360 Capital.

The 360 Capital Group Annual General Meeting is set for 27 November 2013 where a more detailed business update will be provided to investors.
