Resignation of Managing Director - Chief Executive Officer

Building and communication service company BSA Limited (ASX:BSA) announces that after three years with the group, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer Steve Nash has tendered his resignation.

The Board has engaged a consultant to undertake a search process to appoint Steve's successor.

We will provide an update regarding the timing of Steve's departure and the appointment of his successor in due course.

On behalf of the board, we thank Steve for his contribution to BSA.

ENDS -
