DEXUS Property Group (ASX: DXS)

ASX release

11 December 2013

Offer to acquire Commonwealth Property Office Fund (CPA) valued at $1.27 per CPA unit

DEXUS Property Group ("DEXUS") refers to its announcements released on 11 October 2013 and 11 November 2013 in relation to the indicative, non-binding proposal (the "Proposal") made jointly with Canada Pension Plan Investment Board ("CPPIB") (together the "Consortium") to Commonwealth Managed Investments Limited ("CMIL") the Responsible Entity of the Commonwealth Property Office Fund ("CPA"). This proposal was recommended to CPA unitholders by CMIL, in the absence of a superior proposal, and subject to an Independent Expert's opinion, prior to CMIL's termination of its agreement with the Consortium on 25 November 2013.

DEXUS today confirmed that:

1. Takeover offer: The Consortium intends making a cash and scrip off-market takeover offer ("DEXUS Offer") to acquire all of the issued units in CPA¹. The DEXUS Offer will not be subject to a minimum acceptance condition and will only have limited customary conditions²; and
2. Forward contract: DEXUS today intends to exercise its right to take physical delivery of 350,000,000 CPA Units under the forward contract with Deutsche Bank AG on 3 January 2014 unless that obligation is postponed.

Summary of the DEXUS Offer

The DEXUS Offer provides for the following cash and DEXUS scrip consideration (expressed per CPA Unit):

- A cash payment equal to 77.45 cents; and
- 0.4516 DEXUS stapled securities.

Based on the DEXUS closing price on 10 December 2013 the Offer values each CPA unit at $1.27 (a 2.6% premium to the GPT Group's ("GPT") Offer on a comparable basis)

	Estimated value
DEXUS scrip consideration ³	$0.4584
Total cash consideration	$0.7745
DEXUS Offer price per CPA Unit	$1.233
Estimated CPA distribution (which CPA Unitholders will be entitled to retain ⁴)	$0.035
Total value to CPA Unitholders	$1.268
Total value represents a premium to:
- CPA's closing price on 10 December 2013	($1.250) 1.4%
- CPA's closing price on 23 July 2013 ⁵	($1.085) 16.9%
- CPA's 30 day VWAP on 23 July 2013 ⁵	($1.071) 18.3%
- CPA's stated 30 June 2013 NTA	($1.150) 10.2%
- GPT's Offer ⁶	($1.235) 2.6%

¹ The Consortium has established a bid trust for the purposes of making the DEXUS Offer. The trustee of the trust is DEXUS Funds Management Limited.

² See Annexure A accompanying this announcement.

³ Based on the closing price of DEXUS Stapled Securities as at 10 December 2013 of $1.015. Note, DEXUS has estimated its distribution for the six months ending 31 December 2013 to be 3.07 cents per DEXUS Stapled Security. It is likely that the price of a DEXUS Stapled Security will trade at a lower price once they begin to trade on an ex-distribution basis to reflect the distribution to be paid. The impact of the estimated distribution on the implied value of the DEXUS Offer will be set out in the Bidder's Statement.

⁴ Without any adjustment to total cash consideration.

⁵ The day prior to CMIL's announcement that it had received a preliminary internalisation proposal from CBA, which was released to the ASX on 24 July 2013.

⁶ Offer presented on a comparable basis, as outlined in slide 8 of GPT's presentation on 19 November 2013, updated for the GPT close price on 10 December 2013.

DEXUS Property Group (ASX: DXS)

ASX release

CPA Unitholders will be entitled to receive and retain the CPA distribution for the six months ending 31 December 2013, which CMIL has estimated will be approximately 3.5 cents per CPA Unit. Any other distribution paid by CMIL to CPA Unitholders, during the DEXUS Offer period, will be deducted from the cash consideration payable under the DEXUS Offer.

DEXUS stapled securities issued to CPA Unitholders under the DEXUS Offer will rank equally with existing DEXUS stapled securities including for any distribution with a record date that falls on or after they are issued.

Rationale for DEXUS Offer

The acquisition of CPA is highly strategic for the Consortium. Both DEXUS and CPPIB remain committed to its success. Due diligence has been conducted by the Consortium and its third party advisers, including legal, accounting, tax, financial and physical due diligence. Importantly, as a result of these enquiries the Consortium is confident of CPA's value and its view of the opportunities the CPA portfolio presents under DEXUS's management.

Darren Steinberg, CEO of DEXUS said: "The due diligence process has enabled us to confirm our view on value. Our disciplined approach has allowed us to increase the consideration payable to CPA Unitholders, while ensuring there are no unnecessary risks or surprises for current and new DEXUS security holders. We look forward to working with the Board of CMIL to progress this Offer."

Graeme Eadie, Senior Vice-President and Head of Real Estate Investments, CPPIB, said: "As a global investor, CPPIB is attracted to opportunities where we can invest alongside local partners who are leaders in their markets. We have a high regard for the office asset management team at DEXUS and are very pleased to be able to make a large strategic investment that leverages their platform."

The DEXUS Offer investor presentation also released today details the impact on DEXUS's key metrics. In particular, DEXUS expects that, if the Consortium acquires all of the outstanding units in CPA:

- The DEXUS Offer will deliver FFO accretion to DEXUS in line with the range announced in the Consortium's initial Proposal⁷; and
- On a pro-forma basis, DEXUS's gearing will remain within its target range and the dilution to DEXUS's NTA is expected to be at the lower end of the range announced in the initial Proposal⁸

Further information about the DEXUS Offer, the Consortium's intentions and its impact on DEXUS will be provided in the Bidder's Statement for the DEXUS Offer, expected to be released in December 2013. In particular, the Bidder's Statement will outline the Consortium's strategies for CPA if less than 100% of CPA is acquired. The Consortium members have entered into arrangements that provide the potential for liquidity in the future, in circumstances where 100% or less of CPA is acquired, which will be detailed in its Bidder's Statement. The Consortium is confident with an investment in CPA under all possible outcomes.

Key highlights of the DEXUS Offer

The DEXUS Offer is highly attractive for CPA Unitholders and superior to GPT's Offer. Specifically the DEXUS Offer provides a higher consideration, lower execution risk and exposure to an Australian office specialist. The DEXUS Offer is designed to deliver significant financial and strategic benefits to both CPA Unitholders and DEXUS security holders and importantly is being undertaken alongside CPPIB, an experienced international real estate investor.

CPA Unitholders who accept the DEXUS Offer will receive DEXUS stapled securities and will therefore also receive the benefits associated with an investment in DEXUS, including:

- A strong track record of successfully implementing its strategies. The DEXUS Offer follows a disciplined commitment to the execution of DEXUS's objective of office sector leadership over the past 18 months which has seen DEXUS invest in a world class asset management team, divest its US industrial business and reinvest $1.8 billion into Australian office;
- An investment in Australia's leading Office REIT. The transaction brings together two complementary office portfolios. DEXUS will have $11.5 billion of office assets under management following the acquisition of CPA, providing CPA Unitholders with an ongoing investment in an A-REIT with a similar risk profile to their existing CPA investment (on a pro-forma basis office properties will comprise 83% of DEXUS's portfolio); and
- Less transaction risk. The Consortium has completed its due diligence process and is well prepared for managing transition issues, including those associated with a change of control of CPA.

DEXUS relevant interest in CPA

DEXUS today intends to exercise its right to take early delivery of CPA Units under the forward contract with Deutsche Bank AG. As a consequence, DEXUS will be obliged to take delivery of the 350,000,000 units in CPA on 3 January 2014 unless that obligation is postponed.

As also stated in its announcement on 21 November 2013, DEXUS's current intention is not to accept into the GPT Offer and on that basis, the GPT Group will be unable to proceed to compulsory acquisition. DEXUS reserves its rights to change its intention if new information about the GPT Offer is released to the market or the terms of the GPT Offer change.

Facilitation payment

As announced on 11 November 2013, DEXUS entered into a agreement with the Commonwealth Bank of Australia ("CBA"). Under that agreement, CBA agreed to provide due diligence to DEXUS on an exclusive basis in relation to a potential ancillary proposal under which CBA would facilitate the transition of CBA management to DEXUS.

⁹ Offer presented on a comparable basis, as outlined in slide 8 of GPT's presentation on 19 November 2013, updated for the GPT close price on 10 December 2013.

DEXUS Property Group (ASX: DXS)

ASX release

DEXUS has now concluded its due diligence investigations and the agreement with CBA has terminated. The Consortium's arrangements with CMIL providing for a due diligence period have also expired. Whilst the parties have not yet reached agreement in relation to the ancillary proposal, DEXUS continues to believe there is significant value in facilitation services that CBA might provide to DEXUS should the Consortium ultimately acquire a 50.1% relevant interest in CPA and seek to assume management of CPA.

Accordingly, DEXUS intends to continue engaging with CBA with a view to agreeing an arrangement under which CBA will provide to DEXUS the services set out in Annexure B of this announcement. The services would only be provided if DEXUS acquires 50.1% of CPA (on the terms of the current DEXUS Offer) and DEXUS replaces CMIL as the responsible entity of CPA.

Investors should note that, in calculating the financial metrics of the DEXUS Offer detailed in the DEXUS investor presentation which was released at the same time as this announcement, DEXUS has provided for a payment to CBA of up to $41 million. The impact of the facilitation payment on DEXUS's financial position will be confirmed in the Bidder's Statement.

Offer to GPT Wholesale Office Fund (GWOF)

The Consortium notes that GPT has announced that it would sell certain CPA assets to its affiliate, the GPT Wholesale Office Fund ("GWOF"), if it acquires 100% of CPA Units under the GPT Offer. The Consortium intends, if the Consortium acquires 100% of CPA Units before 31 March 2014 under the terms of the DEXUS Offer as outlined in this announcement dated 11 December 2013, to offer to GWOF the opportunity to acquire, on market terms, the following CPA assets for an aggregate sale price of $450.7 million (representing the current CPA book value plus vendor costs incurred in acquiring the properties):

- 100% interest in 750 Collins Street, Melbourne, and
- 50% interest in 2 Southbank Boulevard, Melbourne¹⁰

Joint Bid Agreement

The Consortium have today entered into a Joint Bid Agreement (copy attached) which sets out the obligations of each Consortium member in relation to the conduct of the DEXUS Offer.
