

10 March 2014

For release to market
SENIOR MANAGEMENT CHANGE

Transpacific Industries Group Ltd (ASX:TPI) has today announced a change to the senior management team of the company.

Mr Jack Perko has been appointed Managing Director of Cleanaway, commencing 10 March 2014. Mr Perko brings more than 25 years of waste management and recycling experience gained in a range of senior operational and executive roles in the United States. His most recent role was Region President for Republic Services Inc., responsible for the company's operations in the East, which covered 16 states and Puerto Rico, employed 9,200 people and generated annualised revenue of US$2.6 billion.

Mr Perko holds a Master of Science in Business Management from the Florida Institute of Technology and a Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration from the University of Central Florida.

"We have an ambitious strategy to significantly improve operational effectiveness within Cleanaway and invest for growth. Jack's extensive experience in leading large, full service waste management and recycling businesses will be essential in leading change within Cleanaway, and I am delighted to have him on our team," said TPI Chief Executive Officer Robert Boucher.

As a consequence of these changes Mr Nick Clark, previously Managing Director of Cleanaway, will be leaving the business. "I would like to thank Nick for his contribution to Cleanaway over the last 18 months and wish him well for the future," said Mr Boucher.

END

Investor and media relations

Frank Sufferini

General Manager Investor Relations

Telephone: 0416 241 501