Resignation of Chief Financial Officer

iSelect Limited (ASX:ISU) today announced the resignation of Mr David Chalmers as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of iSelect.

David joined iSelect in 2012 as Corporate Development Director before being appointed to the role of CFO later that year. More recently, David held the post of interim-CEO prior to the appointment of Alex Stevens as CEO in March of this year.

iSelect CEO Alex Stevens said, "The team and I are sad to see David leave iSelect. He has contributed a great deal to the business over his two and a half year tenure and we wish him all the best for the future."

Jackie McAvenna (Head of Finance for iSelect) has been appointed interim-CFO prior to a permanent appointment being made.

The company is well progressed in its search and selection process to appoint a new CFO, and an announcement on this topic will be made in due course.
