FINAL for Release

SIQ announces the renewal of the salary packaging services agreement with Royal Women's Hospital (Melbourne)

Smartgroup Corporation Ltd (SIQ) is pleased to announce that the Royal Women's Hospital (Melbourne) ("RWH") has renewed its arrangement to purchase salary packaging services from SIQ.

RWH has been a client of SIQ since 2002 and currently has approximately 1,600 employees salary packaging with SIQ. It is one of a number of public hospitals in Victoria to which SIQ provides salary packaging services.

The initial term of the agreement is to March 2018. At the expiry of the initial term, RWH, at their discretion, may extend the agreement to March 2022 through multiple extension options.

SIQ looks forward to continuing its long-standing relationship with RWH.
