Commerce Commission's Final Pricing Principle – submissions on backdating

Further to Spark New Zealand's earlier release regarding the Commerce Commission's draft Final Pricing Principle (FPP) determinations, it is noted that the Commerce Commission is seeking views from submitters to see if the final Unbundled Copper Local Loop (UCLL) price should be backdated, and if so to what date (rather than on whether it should be backdated to no earlier than 1 December 2014).
