FlexiGroup confirms it is not involved in the sales process to acquire GE's Australian and New Zealand consumer lending business

Further to several unsubstantiated media articles over the last few months, and in order to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations, FlexiGroup Limited (ASX:FXL) confirms it is not currently involved in the sales process to acquire GE's Australian and New Zealand consumer lending business after securing ACCC approval.

As a participant in the Consumer credit market in Australia and New Zealand, FlexiGroup continues to monitor and remains interested in the outcome of the GE Money sales process.

FlexiGroup continues to actively look at value accretive acquisitions opportunities.

ABOUT FLEXIGROUP

FlexiGroup is a diversified financial services group providing “no interest ever”, leasing, vendor finance programs, interest free and Visa cards, mobile broadband, lay-by and other payment solutions to consumers and businesses.

Through its network of over 12,000 merchant, vendor and retail partners the Group has extensive access to four key markets, Business to Consumer, Business to Business, Retail to Consumers (and small business customers) and online.

Performance has been characterised by solid profitable growth as the company has expanded and diversified its business through organic growth, acquisition and product innovation. This diversification strategy has been extended to the large $45bn credit card market with the acquisition of Lombard and Once Credit businesses.

FlexiGroup operates in Australia, New Zealand and Ireland within a diverse range of industries including: home improvement, solar energy, fitness, IT, electrical appliance, navigation systems, trade equipment and point of sale systems. Services are offered through five business units: Certegy (no interest ever & lay-by), Consumer & SME Leasing - Australia, New Zealand Leasing, Flexi Enterprise (vendor leasing programs) and Lombard and Once (interest-free cards).

Tarek Robbiati joined FlexiGroup as Managing Director and CEO in January 2013. Tarek was Group Managing Director of Telstra International Group (TIG), the fastest growing business unit of Telstra Corporation, and Executive Chairman of CSL-NWM, the number one mobile operator in Hong Kong. He was also previously deputy CFO of Telstra Corporation, and Head of Corporate Finance at Orange Plc in the UK.

The Board of FlexiGroup is chaired by Chris Beare, who is also Chairman of DEXUS Property Group (ASX: DXS). The Board also includes John Skippen, former Finance Director of Harvey Norman Holdings Limited, Rajeev Dhawan, a partner of Equity Partners, Andrew Abercrombie, a founding director and major shareholder in the company, and Anne Ward, presently also Chairman of Colonial First State Investments and the Qantas Superannuation Plan.
