Loan Book Growth

- Loan Book growth of 4.3% (annualised) for 1H 15
- Loan Book increased by $47m 1H 15
- Growth achieved despite elevated run-off due to advanced repayments and recovery action on impaired assets

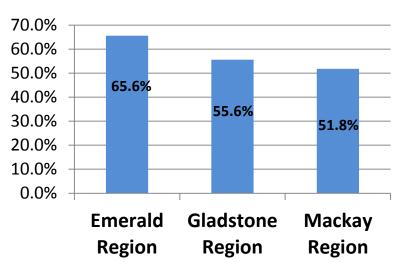

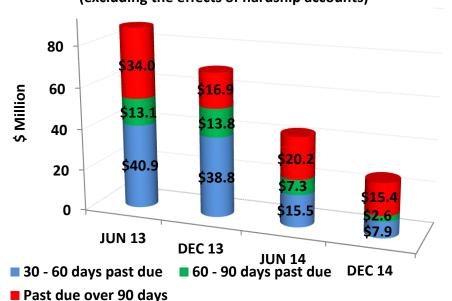

Arrears Continue to Reduce

- Continuing downward trend in arrears
- Emphasis on improved credit quality
- No lending in excess of 95% LVR
- Ongoing surveillance of lending portfolio in mining regions
- 30 + day arrears represented 1.1% of loans and advances at 31 December 2014

Average LVR for existing residential loans in mining influenced centres as at 31 December 2014

Loans and advances past due (excluding the effects of hardship accounts)

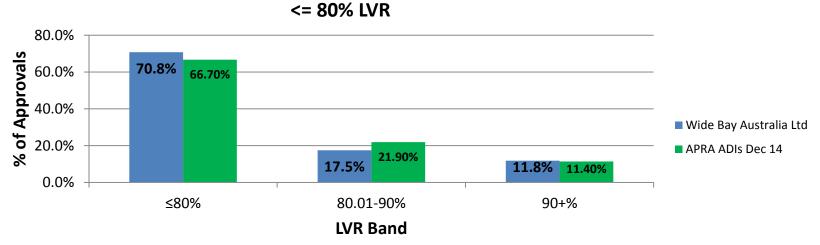

New Lending Quality Strong

- Loan Growth compares favourably considering high quality origination
- WBA does not believe this is the market to take greater risk, with current low interest rates and rapid property price increases in some markets along with challenges in others
- Quality of Loan Book growth remains a key priority in the current market
- WBA is not originating loans above 95% LVR

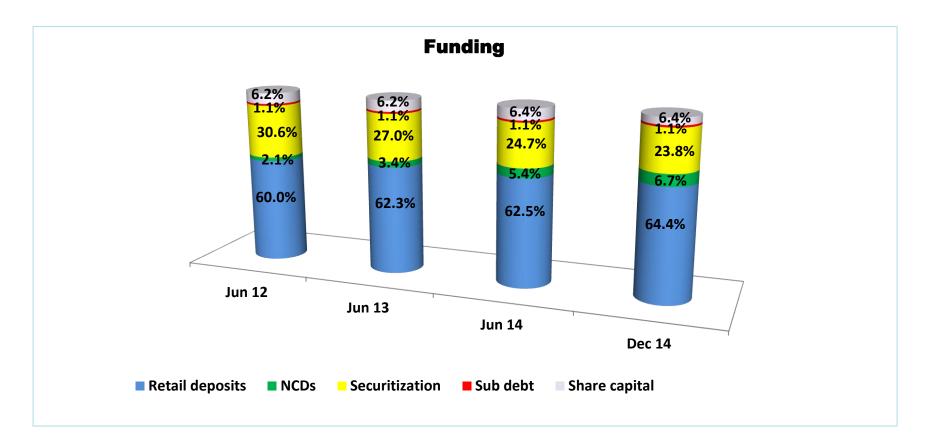

More than 70% of all new home loans approved during Jul-Dec 2014 were

Funding

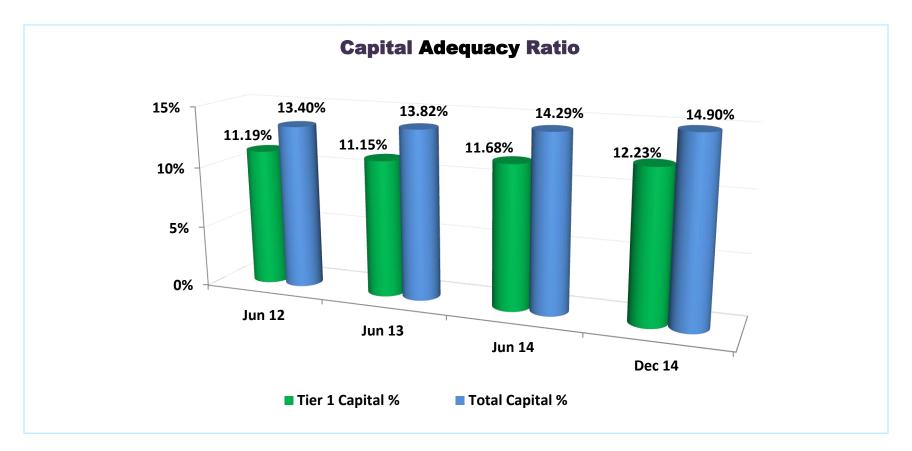

- Growth in NCDs up to 6.7% of funding
- Reduced reliance on securitisation in line with strategy of 20% 25%
- Warehouses cleared in November 2014 to provide future funding capacity
- Growth in the retail deposit base with controlled margin management

Capital

- Strong Capital Adequacy Ratio in excess of Board policy
- Capital adequate for asset growth including business banking and personal loan books
- Capital relief from off-balance sheet Trust 2014 settled in November 2014

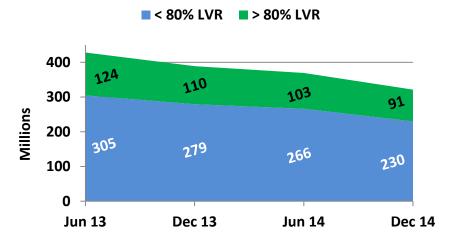

MRM in Wind Down

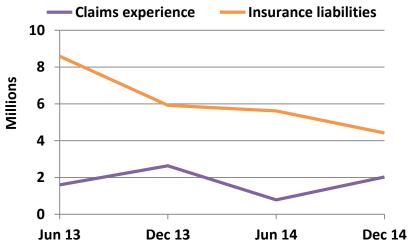

Solving for:

- Return of capital to the Chief Entity
- Reduction in compliance and administrative expenses
- Less volatility in provisions and bad debts
- Efficient and timely reporting to Management and Board of Directors

MRM insured loans portfolio

Claims experience vs Insurance liabilities

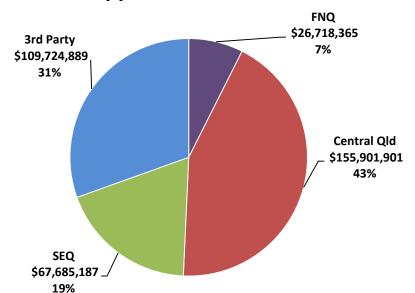

Home Lending Approvals Up and Geography Evolving

- SEQ growth expected to continue further investment 2015
- Broker growth slower than preferred but quality strong reposition under Auswide Bank brand
- Core market will remain challenged for sometime continued growth outside region is critical
- Home Loan competition remains fierce with price and risk plays evident

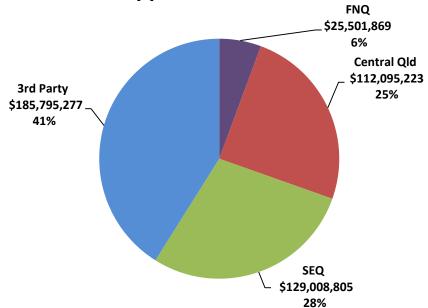

Contribution - 2013

Total Approved - $360,030,342

Contribution - 2014

Total Approved - $452,401,173

Current Distribution vs Future Distribution

- Release investment in poor returning distribution
- Investments into multichannel to accelerate growth
- Process re-engineering, increasing productivity & reducing cost
- Appetite for acquisition opportunity
