To Whom It May Concern:

We wish to inform you that as of February 20, 2015, the Harris Associates Investment Trust ("HAIT") held 85,018,900 shares of Transpacific Industries which represents 5.38% of voting rights. HAIT's holdings were previously reported and included in the aggregate percentage holdings of Harris Associates L.P. ("Harris") but were not separately reported. HAIT is a separate legal entity for which Harris serves as investment advisor with discretionary authority and proxy voting authority.

Following further review of the ASX filing requirements and consultation with Australian counsel, we were advised that in addition to Harris' aggregate filing, a separate filing should have been made on behalf of HAIT. As such, we are submitting the attached form for substantial holdings today. The last filing submitted by Harris for Transpacific Industries was as of February 23, 2015, at a position of 7.46%. The holdings for HAIT were included in that filing.

Harris will continue to include HAIT's holdings in its aggregate disclosure filings. Going forward, Harris will also file separate notifications on behalf of HAIT, when required.

If you have any questions or require further information, please contact me at (312) 646-3489 or at kcolwell@harrisassoc.com.

Sincerely,

Kim Colwell
Senior Compliance Officer

DIRECTIONS

- (1) If there are a number of substantial holders with similar or related relevant interests (eg. a corporation and its related corporations, or the manager and trustee of an equity trust), the names could be included in an annexure to the form. If the relevant interests of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to throughout the form as a specifically named group if the membership of each group, with the names and addresses of members is clearly set out in paragraph 7 of the form.
- (2) See the definition of "associate" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (3) See the definition of "relevant interest" in sections 608 and 671B(7) of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (4) The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless divided into separate classes.
- (5) The total number of votes attached to all the voting shares in the company or voting interests in the scheme (if any) that the person or an associate has a relevant interest in.
- (6) The person's votes divided by the total votes in the body corporate or scheme multiplied by 100.
- (7) Include details of:
  - (a) any relevant agreement or other circumstances by which the relevant interest was acquired. If subsection 871B(4) applies, a copy of any document setting out the terms of any relevant agreement, and a statement by the person giving full and accurate details of any contract, scheme or arrangement, must accompany this form, together with a written statement certifying this contract, scheme or arrangement; and
  - (b) any qualification of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting powers or disposal of the securities to which the relevant interest relates (indicating clearly the particular securities to which the qualification applies).

See the definition of "relevant agreement" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (8) If the substantial holder is unable to determine the identity of the person (eg. if the relevant interest arises because of an option) write "unknown".
- (9) Details of the consideration must include any and all benefits, money and other, that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has, or may, become entitled to receive in relation to that acquisition. Details must be included even if the benefit is conditional on the happening or not of a contingency. Details must be included of any benefit paid on behalf of the substantial holder or its associate in relation to the acquisitions, even if they are not paid directly to the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.
