3P Learning and Microsoft partner in the lead up to the World Education Games 2015

3P Learning Limited (ASX: 3PL) and Microsoft Corporation (NASDAQ: MSFT) have today announced a partnership agreement for 3PL to use Microsoft Azure as its global cloud platform for the World Education Games 2015 and the world-leading Mathletics learning platform.

The partnership will also facilitate the expansion of 3PL's mobility learning apps for Windows 8 and Windows 10.

Tim Power, CEO of 3P Learning, commented "the 3PL team believe strongly in the partnership because we have a shared commitment to unite the world in learning." With millions of students expected to take part in the World Education Games 2015, this will be an exciting and ground breaking event.

Pip Marlow (Managing Director of Microsoft Australia) commented about the partnership, "3P Learning's technology positively impacts the lives of millions of school children all over the world, including my own," said Pip Marlow, managing director, Microsoft Australia. "I am looking forward to the upcoming World Education Games, which 3P Learning will deliver in partnership with UNICEF – it's great to see Microsoft Azure chosen to deliver this event."

The World Education Games 2015 will take place in October.
