Slater & Gordon Limited successfully completes retail bookbuild

Slater & Gordon Limited (ASX: SGH) (SGH) is pleased to announce the completion of the bookbuild (Retail Shortfall Bookbuild) for the retail component of its fully underwritten pro rata 2 for 3 accelerated renounceable entitlement offer of new SGH ordinary shares (New Shares) at an offer price of A$6.37 per New Share (Offer Price) to raise approximately $890 million (Entitlement Offer).

Slater and Gordon's Group Managing Director, Andrew Grech, said: "The acquisition of the PSD is a transformational opportunity for Slater and Gordon. The successful completion of the retail bookbuild represents the final stage of the $890m equity raising, which together with our new debt facilities, will fund the transaction. The Board and management team are excited about the PSD's potential and we are confident the transaction will deliver significant value to Slater and Gordon shareholders, as PSD is expected to be more than 30% EPS accretive in our first year of ownership and we intend to continue to deliver an operating cash to NPAT conversion target of greater than 70%".

Ken Fowlie, who on completion will become Slater and Gordon's Managing Director United Kingdom (UK) & Europe, said, "The addition of the PSD will allow Slater and Gordon to further penetrate the highly fragmented £2.5bn UK personal injury market. It diversifies our sources of legal work while also increasing our touch points along the claims value chain. I am looking forward to moving back to the UK to lead the local team and our enhanced UK and European operations."

The transaction remains subject to customary regulatory approvals and financial close is expected in May 2015.
