MEDIA RELEASE

IMF Bentham announces appointment of Michael Kay as new Board Chair

Sydney, 17 June 2015 – ASX-listed litigation funder, IMF Bentham Limited (ASX: IMF) today announced that respected business figure Michael Kay will join its Board as Non-Executive Director and Chairperson effective from 1 July 2015.

A qualified lawyer, Mr Kay brings a wealth of commercial experience to the IMF Bentham Board. Most recently he was CEO and Managing Director of listed salary packaging firm McMillan Shakespeare, a position he held for six years. Previously, Mr Kay had been CEO of national insurer AAMI after serving in a variety of senior roles with that firm. Prior to joining AAMI he had spent 12 years in private legal practice.

IMF Bentham interim Chairperson, Michael Bowen, said: "We're delighted to have someone of Michael's calibre join the IMF Bentham Board. He brings a consistent record of business success, and of being able to assess and respond to complex strategic environments. Michael's appointment boosts the number of independent Directors on IMF's Board, which is an important priority for the company."

Mr Kay said he was looking forward to contributing to the strategic oversight of IMF Bentham during an important expansion period.

"IMF Bentham has an important role to play in facilitating access to justice, not only in Australia but increasingly in offshore markets including Europe, the US and Asia. It is an exciting time for the company and I look forward to playing a part in the next stage of its evolution," Mr Kay said.

Mr Kay replaces the interim Chairperson, Mr Michael Bowen, who has filled the position since last January.
