Victorian Department of Education and Training - Transfer Program

Fleetwood has provided transportable building services to the Victorian Department of Education and Training (“DET”) since 2010. The services involve relocation, storage, refurbishment and asbestos removal (“Services”).

The program was recently retendered ahead of the conclusion of the original three year term and two year option.

Fleetwood advises that it has been successful in the tender process and has been reappointed to the panel of contractors providing Services. The contract has an initial term of two years, and an option exercisable by DET for an additional three years.
