ACCOMMODATION AGREEMENT WITH CONOCOPHILLIPS

- Exclusive shutdown accommodation provider for Australia Pacific LNG facility on Curtis Island
- Homeground transitions to the operational phase of the major Gladstone LNG projects

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) ("Decmil" or "Company") is pleased to announce a wholly owned subsidiary, Homeground Gladstone Pty Ltd ("Homeground"), has entered into an exclusive accommodation agreement with ConocoPhillips. ConocoPhillips is the downstream operator of the Australia Pacific LNG facility located on Curtis Island, near Gladstone. Once complete, the facility will comprise of two LNG processing trains, each with a nameplate capacity of 4.5 mtpa.

Homeground will provide ConocoPhillips with accommodation for all shutdown workforce requirements, including major plant shutdowns, under an exclusive agreement.

The agreement will see Homeground transition, in-line with the market, to the operational phase of the major LNG projects in the Gladstone region.

Homeground also currently provides shutdown accommodation requirements to Rio Tinto's Yarwun Bauxite refinery in the region.

Decmil Group CEO and Managing Director, Mr Scott Criddle, commented:

"Homeground has developed a strong reputation with the major project operators in the Gladstone region as a temporary workforce accommodation provider of the highest standard. This partnership with ConocoPhillips will see Homeground become an important service provider to Australia Pacific LNG by providing the infrastructure to manage all temporary workforce accommodation requirements".
