SEALINK CONFIRMS INCLUSION IN ASX300

SeaLink Travel Group (ASX: SLK) today confirmed it will be included in the S&P/ Dow Jones ASX300 index following the latest quarterly re-balancing of the index.

The inclusion is effective after the close of trading on March 18th 2016.

Managing Director Jeff Ellison said the inclusion in the ASX300 was another significant milestone for the company since its listing on the exchange in October 2013.

“SeaLink now operates in four states and the Northern Territory with a fleet of 71 vessels, with over 1100 staff and has come a long way since its inception in South Australia 25 years ago providing services to Kangaroo Island,” Mr Ellison said.

Andrew McEvoy, Chair of SeaLink said “The ASX300 is recognised as the investable benchmark for the Australian equity market regionally and internationally, and the improved liquidity and profile that arises from being included in the index is beneficial to all our shareholders.”
