WiseTech Global announces corporate office roles

WiseTech Global announces the appointment of Natasha Davidson as General Counsel. Natasha brings strong commercial legal skills from Clayton Utz where she led corporate transactions specialising in capital markets and regulatory initiatives. Her previous experience also spans legal counsel roles for Royal Bank of Scotland and ABN AMRO NV.

Richard White, Chief Executive Officer of WiseTech Global, said “This appointment supports our move to a life as a listed company and our growth plans. Natasha worked with us through our IPO process, knows our business thoroughly and offers substantial corporate experience that will serve us well.”

In addition to this appointment, we have taken the opportunity to restructure roles to separate legal counsel and corporate transaction activities. Our Chief Financial Officer, Andrew Cartledge, will have oversight of mergers and acquisitions and other strategic ventures as part of his remit. This will allow the Group to leverage Andrew’s extensive experience in executing acquisitions across North America, Asia and Europe during his 25 years with GE and ensure alignment with capital efficiency.

Adam Kossak, General Counsel and Chief Commercial Officer, is stepping down from these roles but will assist in effecting an orderly transition until his departure in July 2016. Richard White, said “I would personally like to thank Adam for his significant contribution over the past 6 years and wish him well in his future endeavours”
