1st Available Limited (ASX: 1ST) ('The Company', '1stAvailable', or '1ST'), is pleased to announce that it has now exceeded 4 million online appointment bookings since 2012. 1stAvailable is Australia's online health services community platform that simplifies and facilitates interaction between all health services stakeholders, enhancing consumer choice, access and outcomes.

This significant milestone was reached in a very short amount of time, with 1stAvailable surpassing the 3 million mark just in August last year. The milestone verifies the Company's strong appointment booking growth and consumer appetite for booking appointments online.

"We are very pleased to have reached this significant milestone so quickly, which verifies our strong track record with appointment bookings and consumer demand for the 1stAvailable app," said 1stAvailable Chief Executive Officer, Klaus Bartosch.

"More importantly, in a recent survey of 1stAvailable consumer users, almost 47% of say they now select new healthcare services based on whether they offer a 1stAvailable service, and 37% saying they would actually switch doctors for a practice that offered 1stAvailable's online appointments."
