ADELAIDE BRIGHTON CONCLUDES COMMERCIAL NEGOTIATIONS WITH STRIKE ENERGY FOR GAS SUPPLY

Adelaide Brighton announces that it has concluded negotiations about non-binding, indicative terms with Strike Energy Limited ("Strike" – ASX:STX) for the potential supply of gas covering a portion of requirements for operations in South Australia.

The Indicative Commercial Term Sheets cover the supply of gas from 2017, initially on an interruptible basis from the Strike Demonstration Facility, with the potential to convert to firm gas supply as Strike production ramps up.

As an energy intensive manufacturer, Adelaide Brighton is pleased to have concluded negotiations for additional future gas supply to its South Australian manufacturing base. This new supply arrangement supports our gas portfolio approach to secure our total gas requirement in South Australia and adds to our portfolio of gas supply contracts with existing producers.
