In announcing the result, EVT Group Managing Director Mr David Seargeant commented: “The Group recorded another exceptional result and a record normalised profit with each of the major businesses contributing to the profit uplift”. Mr Seargeant added: “The cinema exhibition circuits benefitted from a strong film line-up that included Star Wars: The Force Awakens, the surprise hit Deadpool and the Bond film Spectre. In Germany, locally produced films Fack ju Göhte 2 and Er Ist Wieder Da further contributed to the result”.

The Hotels and Resorts business recorded a strong uplift in normalised profit, with the Group’s QT and Atura branded hotels gaining significant brand awareness, loyalty and traction within the markets in which they operate. Across the Group’s owned Hotels, Occupancy increased by 2 percentage points and the Average Room Rate was up by 4.4% to $168. Thredbo also reported another strong season, with good conditions for snowmaking and consistent cold night time temperatures enabling top to bottom skiing for the entire season.
