CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

Introduction

Range Resources Limited (Range or the Company) has adopted appropriate systems of control and accountability as the basis for the administration of corporate governance. The Board supports the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition, released in March 2014) (ASX Recommendations) developed by the ASX Corporate Governance Council (Council). The Company has adopted the 3rd Edition of the ASX Recommendations in respect of the financial year ended 30 June 2016 (Reporting Period).

Where the Company's corporate governance practices follow a recommendation, the Board has made appropriate statements reporting on the adoption of the recommendation. Where, after due consideration, the Company's corporate governance practices depart from a recommendation, the Board has offered full disclosure and reason for the adoption of its own practice.

Further information about the Company's corporate governance practices can be found on the Company's website at www.rangeresources.co.uk, under the section marked "Corporate Governance".

Yan Liu	5	5
David Chen	5	5
Juan Wang	5	4
Yu Wang	4	4
Lubing Liu	-	-
Yi Zeng	-	-

To assist the Board in carrying out its responsibilities, the following standing Committees of its members have been established:

- Remuneration and Nomination Committee;
- Audit and Risk Committee; and
- Reserves Committee.

Each Committee has its own Charter that describes the roles and responsibilities delegated to the Committee by the Board, and those Charters are published on Range's website.

The Board delegates responsibility to the CEO for implementing the strategic direction and objectives and managing the day-to-day operations of Range. The CEO consults with the Chairman, in the first instance, on matters that are sensitive, extraordinary or of a strategic nature. The Board has approved specific limits of authority for management with respect to approval of expenditure, contracts and other matters, and regularly reviews those limits.

1.2 Company Board Appointments

Range is committed to upholding the highest standards in corporate governance. Range's corporate governance framework is underpinned by the appointment of high quality Board members.

When a candidate's nomination for election is being put forward for approval by shareholders at an Annual General Meeting, as described under Principle 2 below, all material information in Range's possession that the Board considers relevant to the candidate's election as a Director will be provided to shareholders in the relevant notice of meeting.

When considering the appointment of a new Director, the Board may engage the services of an external executive search firm to identify suitable candidates for consideration and to carry out appropriate reference and background checks.

1.3 Terms of Appointment

All Directors of the Company are required to sign a letter of appointment outlining the material terms of their appointment and the key roles based on their experience and skills. The remuneration of the Directors of the Company and Key Management Personnel are outlined in the Remuneration Report in the Company's latest Annual Report.

Under the Company's Constitution, the minimum number of Directors is three. At each Annual General Meeting, one third of the Directors (excluding the CEO) must resign, with Directors resigning by rotation based on the date of their appointment. Directors resigning by rotation may offer themselves for re-election.

The members of the Executive Team have written employment agreements with the Company setting out their key roles, obligations and remuneration. The remuneration is commensurate to the market rate and their experience and skills in the respective field.

1.4 The Company Secretary

The Company Secretary is appointed by the Board and is responsible for developing and maintaining the information systems and processes that are appropriate for the Board to fulfil its role. The Company Secretary is responsible to the Board for advising on and monitoring compliance with Board procedures and governance matters. The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. The Company Secretary is also responsible for overseeing and coordinating disclosure of information to the ASX and AIM as well as communicating with the stock exchanges as appropriate. Each Director is able to directly access the services and advice of the Company Secretary.

The joint Company Secretaries, their qualifications and experience are stated in the Company's latest Annual Report.

1.5 Diversity

The Company recognises that diversity drives the Company's ability to attract, retain, motivate and develop talent, create an engaged workforce, and continue to grow the business. In view of the above, the Board has adopted a Diversity Policy, available on the Company's website.

The Company's diversity strategies include:

- Recruiting from a diverse pool of candidates for all positions, including senior management and the Board;
- Reviewing succession plans to ensure an appropriate focus on diversity;
- Identifying specific factors to take account of in recruitment and selection processes to encourage diversity;
- Developing programs to develop a broader pool of skilled and experienced senior management and Board candidates, including, workplace development programs, mentoring programs and targeted training and development;
- Developing a culture which takes account of domestic responsibilities of employees; and
- Any other strategies the Board develops from time to time.

Whilst the Company notes the ASX Principles and Recommendations, it recognises that the Company has a small team of Directors and employees, and as such the Board has determined that it will not set benchmarks for gender diversity, and will not report against its progress to achieve any measurable objective. The Company remains committed however, to ensuring that the best candidates both at a Board and employee level are appointed as opportunities arise regardless of gender, beliefs or racial background.

The Company believes that while this is departure from the Principles and Recommendations, it does not diminish its commitment to ensuring gender diversity.

1.6 Performance Review and Evaluation of Directors

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will arrange a performance review and evaluation of the Board, its Committees, and individual Directors. To assist in this process an independent advisor may be used.

The review will include:

- Comparing the performance of the Board with the requirements of its Charter;
- Examination of the Board's interaction with management;
- The nature of information provided to the Board by management; and
- Management's performance in assisting the Board to meet its objectives.

A similar review will be conducted for each Committee by the Board with the aim of assessing the performance of each Committee and identifying areas where improvements can be made.

A review was undertaken during the Reporting Period in December 2015.

1.7 Performance and Review and Evaluation of Senior Management

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will oversee the performance evaluation of the executive team. This evaluation is based on specific criteria, including the business performance of the Company and its subsidiaries, whether strategic objectives are being achieved and the development of management and personnel.

A review was undertaken during the Reporting Period in December 2015.

Principle 2: Structure the Board to Add Value

2.1 Nomination for Board Appointment

The Board has established a Remuneration and Nomination Committee. The primary purpose of the Committee is to support and advise the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to shareholders by:

- Reviewing and approving any equity based plans and other incentive schemes.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors, and is chaired by an independent Director.

The Board considers the present composition, size and balance in respect of qualifications and experience of the Board to be appropriate and effective for the control and direction of the Group's business. Each Director is expected to bring to the Company their experience and skills in the respective fields, in particular their considerable industry experience, to add value to the performance of the Company.

All directors are made aware of their rights to access employees, information and resources. Directors are encouraged to visit the Group's locations and meet with management to gain a better understanding of the Group's operations. Directors are given access to continuing education opportunities to update and enhance their skills and knowledge base.

All Directors have unrestricted access to the Company records and information except where the Board determines that such access would be adverse to the Company's interests.

The Board, Committees or individual Directors may seek independent external professional advice as considered necessary at the expense of the Company, subject to prior consultation with the Chairman. A copy of any such advice received is made available to all members of the Board.

Principle 3: Promote Ethical and Responsible Decision-Making

It underpins the Company's commitment to integrity and fair dealing in its business affairs and to a duty of care to all employees, clients and stakeholders.

The Code can be found in the corporate governance section of the Company's website.

Principle 4: Safeguard Integrity in Financial Reporting

4.1 Audit and Risk Committee

The external Auditor attends the Company's AGMs (in person or by teleconference) and is available to answer shareholders' questions about the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the Auditor's Report.

Principle 5: Make Timely and Balanced Disclosure

5.1 Continuous Disclosure

The Company must comply with continuous disclosure requirements arising from legislation and the ASX Listing Rules and AIM Rules, and the EU Market Abuse Regulations (Regulation EU 596/2014) (MAR).

The general rule, in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 3.1, is that once the Company becomes aware of any information concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities, the Company must immediately disclose that information to the ASX.

AIM Rule 10 provides information must be notified on AIM no later than it is published elsewhere. An AIM Company must take reasonable care to ensure that any information it notifies is not misleading, false or deceptive and does not omit anything that is likely to affect the import of such information. It will be presumed that information notified to a Regulatory Information Service is required by these rules or other legal regulatory requirement unless otherwise designated.

AIM Rule 11 states an AIM Company must issue notification without delay of any new developments which are not public knowledge which, if made public, would be likely to lead to a substantial movement in the price of its AIM securities. By way of example, this may include matters concerning a change in:

- Its financial condition;
- Its sphere of activity;
- The performance of its business; or
- Its expectation of its performance.

MAR Article 17 states an issuer shall inform the public as soon as possible of inside information which directly concerns that issuer. The issuer shall ensure that the inside information is made public in a manner which enables fast access and complete, correct and timely assessment of the information by the public. The issuer shall post and maintain on a website for a period of five years all inside information it is required to disclose publically.

MAR Article 7 provides that 'inside information' is information of a precise nature, which has not been made public, relating, directly or indirectly to one or more issuers or to one or more financial instruments, and which, if it were made public, would be likely to have a significant effect on the prices of those financial instruments or on the price of related derivative financial instruments. Whether the information which, if it were made public, would have an effect on the price or value of any securities shall mean information a reasonable investor would be likely to use as part of the basis of his or her investment decisions.

The Company has in place a written policy on information disclosure and relevant procedures, which can be accessed at www.rangeresources.co.uk.

Principle 6: Respect the Rights of Securityholders

6.1 Market and Shareholder Communications

Range's website contains information about the Company including media releases, key policies and the terms of reference of the Board Committees. All relevant announcements made to the market and any other relevant information will be posted on the website as soon as they have been released to ASX and AIM.

6.2 Investor Relations

The Company places significant importance on effective communication with shareholders. Information is communicated to shareholders through the annual and half yearly financial reports, quarterly reports on activities, announcements through the ASX and AIM, media, the Company's website and through the Chairman's address at the Annual General Meeting. After the Annual General Meeting, Chairman of the meeting is available to meet with any shareholders and answer questions. Shareholders are encouraged to contact Range and to submit any questions via email admin@rangeresources.co.uk.

As part of the Company's developing investor relations programme, shareholders can register on the Company's website to receive email notifications of when an announcement is made by the Company to the ASX and AIM, including the release of the annual report, half yearly reports and quarterly reports. Links are made available to the Company's website on which all information provided to the ASX and AIM is immediately posted.

The Company will, wherever practicable, take advantage of new technologies that provide greater opportunities for more effective communications with shareholders.

The Company's shareholder communications strategy can be accessed from the Company's website www.rangeresources.co.uk.

6.3 Shareholders' Meetings

Shareholders have the ability to communicate with Directors through various means including:

- Having the opportunity to ask questions of Directors at all general meetings;
- The presence of the Auditor at AGMs (in person or by teleconference, as practicable and appropriate) to take shareholder questions on any issue relevant to their capacity as Auditor; and
- The Company making Directors and selected executives available to answer shareholder questions submitted by telephone, email and other means (where appropriate).

Traditionally, the key forum for two-way communication between the Company and its shareholders is its AGM. The Board encourages shareholder participation at the Company's AGM and other general meetings of shareholders, and the Chairman encourages questions and comments from shareholders and seeks to ensure that shareholders are given ample opportunity to participate. Shareholders who are unable to attend the AGM or a general meeting may submit questions and comments before the meeting to the Company and or to the Auditor (in the case of the AGM).

6.4 Electronic Communications

Range's website (www.rangeresources.co.uk) contains the following information for the benefit of shareholders:

- All market announcements and related information (posted immediately following release to the ASX and AIM);
- Details relating to the Company's Directors and key executives;
- Details of key person for shareholders' queries; and
- Board and Board Committee Charters and other corporate governance documents.

In order to facilitate shareholder engagement, the Company may webcast and/or provide copies of investor presentations, general meeting results and selected analyst and media briefings on the Company's website.

Principle 7: Recognise and Manage Risk

7.1 Risk Committee

The Board does not have a stand-alone Risk Committee. However, the Company's Audit and Risk Committee oversees the Company's risk management and compliance function, with key responsibilities being to ensure that an appropriate risk management framework is in place and is operating properly and reviewing and monitoring legal and policy compliance systems and issues.

The composition, the number of times that the Audit and Risk Committee met during the Reporting Period, and the individual attendances of the Committee members at those meetings are disclosed in section 4.1 above.

The Company notes the ASX Principles and Recommendations stating that the Audit and Risk Committee should have at least three members, a majority of whom are independent Directors, and is chaired by an independent Director. The Committee was structured to represent the best mix of Board skills to manage the risk function.

The Company believes that while this is departure from the Principles and Recommendations, it does not diminish its commitment to recognising and managing risk.

The Board Audit and Risk Committee Charter is available on the Company's website.

7.2 Internal Control and Risk Management

No review took place during the period, however following the appointment of the enlarged and strengthened Audit and Risk Committee the review is scheduled to be completed at the next Committee meeting.

7.3 Internal Audit

Range does not have an internal audit function due to the size of the organisation, and relies on the controls testing and recommendations to the Board from the external auditor.

The Range Board and the Audit and Risk Committee will have primary responsibility for ensuring that the significant risks facing the Company have been identified and adequate control, monitoring and reporting mechanisms are in place.

7.4 Risk Exposures

The risk management function is supported by the Audit and Risk Committee.

The Audit and Risk Committee has reviewed the overall risks to the Company and has reported to the Board that there are in their opinion no material un-mitigated exposures to economic, environmental or social sustainability risks that would have an impact on the Company or its operations.

Principle 8: Remunerate Fairly and Responsibly

8.1 Remuneration and Nomination Committee

The Board has established a Remuneration and Nomination Committee to consider and make recommendations to the Board on, among other things, remuneration policies applicable to Board members and senior management.

The Committee has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors, and is chaired by an independent director.

The Committee members, the number of times the Committee met during the Reporting Period and the individual attendances of the Committee members at those meetings are disclosed in section 2.1 above.
