2 Managing Director's Letter

14 November 2016

Dear Cellnet Shareholder,

Proportional Offer by Cellnet by Wentronic

I am delighted to be able to provide you with the Offer to acquire 83% of your Cellnet Shares for $0.28 per Cellnet Share in cash.

My brother Marcus and I, the sole shareholders and joint Managing Directors of Wentronic, are very excited about the opportunities of aligning Wentronic and Cellnet in the way described in this Bidder's Statement. Both Wentronic and Cellnet operate in the distribution and marketing of mobile phone accessories to the mobile telecommunications and retail industries. Cellnet operates in Australia and New Zealand and Wentronic operates throughout the rest of the world, so we see that a core component of the businesses of Wentronic and Cellnet are aligned.

In addition, Wentronic operates more broadly in the distribution and marketing of accessories for television and satellite products, audio and video products, accessories for notebooks and personal computers, network accessories, lighting, power supplies and batteries. On that basis, Wentronic sees that there is considerable scope for it to be able to broaden the scope of products that Cellnet distributes in Australia and New Zealand.

Wentronic has also formed the view that the similar ways in which both Wentronic and Cellnet do business, on opposite sides of the world, leaves a lot of room for both Wentronic and Cellnet to learn from each other's business practices.

We believe that:

- (a) the Offer provides a premium to the last trading price on the Last Trading Day and to the five day volume weighted average trading price in the five Trading Days up to and including the Last Trading Day; and
- (b) the structure of the Offer allows you to realise a portion of your investment in Cellnet at a premium whilst participating in as a Cellnet Shareholder and benefitting from a close relationship with Wentronic.

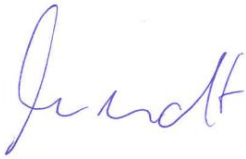

You should also note that the Cellnet Directors unanimously recommend that you accept the Offer in the absence of Superior Proposal, subject to the Independent Expert being of the opinion that the Offer is either fair and reasonable or not fair but reasonable.

We are very excited about the prospect of purchasing a majority shareholding in Cellnet and the varieties of opportunities that come with it. On that basis, I commend the Offer to you and encourage you to consider it carefully and to read this Bidder's Statement in full.

The Offer will open on 21 November 2016 and is scheduled to close 7.00pm (Sydney time) on 21 December 2016, unless extended or withdrawn. To accept the Offer, please follow the instructions set out in section 11.3 and on the enclosed Acceptance Form.

If you require additional assistance, please consult your Broker or your legal, financial or other professional adviser or contact the Offer Information Line on 1800 079 367 for callers within Australia and +61 1800 079 367 for callers outside Australia.

Yours sincerely

8 Sources of funding

8.1 Total consideration

The maximum amount of cash that Wentronic would be required to pay under the Offer if acceptances are received by all Cellnet Shareholders as at the date of this Bidder's Statement is approximately $12,264,500³ (Maximum Cash Consideration).

8.2 Sources of funding

The cash required to fund the Maximum Cash Consideration will be:

- (a) obtained by Wentronic from Volksbank BraWo; and
- (b) funded from Wentronic's cash reserves.

Volksbank BraWo will provide a total of €6,350,000. As at the Last Trading Day, this converts to approximately $9,426,960⁴. Wentronic will provide the remainder of the funding from its cash reserves up to the Maximum Cash Consideration.

This is all as discussed in more detail in the following sections.

8.3 Background on Volksbank BraWo

Under German law Volksbank BraWo is an 'eingetragene Genossenschaft' or registered co-operative bank. The 'Genossenschaftsregister' or co-operatives register number of Volksbank BraWo, is 100001. As disclosed in the 'Geschäftsbericht' or annual report for Volksbank BraWo for the financial year ended 31 December 2015, the total assets of Volksbank BraWo were €2,616,852,936 and its net assets were €199,651,943.

Volksbank BraWo is regulated by the 'Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht' or the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority.

Further information about Volksbank BraWo is available at www.volksbank-brawo.de/.

8.4 Funding to be provided by Volksbank BraWo

The funding to be provided by Volksbank BraWo to Wentronic is to be provided in two tranches as described in more detail in this section.

Tranche 1 – Annuity loan

The first tranche of €3,050,000 will be provided to Wentronic by Volksbank BraWo under the terms of an interest bearing secured annuity loan. Binding agreements in respect of this loan were executed prior to the date of this Bidder's Statement. Subject to satisfaction of conditions precedent to draw down (as discussed below), the whole of the first tranche will be available for Wentronic to draw down on 15 December 2016. This loan will be repayable on or before 30 November 2023.

Tranche 2 – Variable loan

The second tranche of €3,300,000 is being provided to Wentronic by Volksbank BraWo under the terms of an interest bearing variable loan. Binding agreements in respect of this loan were executed prior to the date of this Bidder's Statement and the whole of the second tranche will be available for Wentronic to draw down on 15 December 2016. This loan will be repayable on or before 28 February 2018.

³ For the purposes of this calculation, Wentronic has assumed that all Cellnet Shareholders will accept the Offer and that if any Cellnet Shareholders' acceptance of the Offer leaves them with less than a Marketable Parcel of Cellnet Shares, the Offer will be extended to all of those Cellnet Shares subject to the modification to section 618(2) of the Corporations Act made by ASIC under Class Order [CO 13/521]. See section 11.1(f) for further details.

⁴ Converted using the rates 0.6736 as supplied by the Reserve Bank of Australia at <http://www.rba.gov.au/statistics/frequency/exchange-rates.html> accessed on 9 November 2016.

Conditions precedent to draw down

The key conditions precedent that must be fulfilled prior to Wentronic drawing down both tranches are as follows:

- (a) execution of security documents in favour of Volksbank BraWo including:
 - (i) a share mortgage in respect of the Cellnet Shares purchased by Wentronic under the terms of the Offer;
 - (ii) guarantees to be signed by the directors of Wentronic;
 - (iii) guarantees to be provided by other companies in the Wentronic Group;
 - (iv) mortgages over real property owned by companies in the Wentronic Group and other property owned indirectly by the directors of Wentronic.
- (b) Wentronic acquiring a Relevant Interest of more than 50.1% of the Cellnet Shares and the remaining Conditions have been fulfilled or freed; and
- (c) neither Wentronic nor Cellnet has terminated the Bid Implementation Agreement prior to draw down.

The conditions precedent in described in paragraph (a) will all be fulfilled prior to the date upon which the Notice of Status of Conditions is given by Wentronic. The remaining conditions precedent will be fulfilled or freed in the manner described in this Bidder's Statement.

Termination rights

The loan agreements in respect of both tranches of finance have usual termination rights in favour of Volksbank BraWo respect of a failure of Wentronic to pay and insolvency in respect of Wentronic. Other rights of termination include

- (a) either Wentronic or Cellnet terminating the Bid Implementation Agreement prior to draw down;
- (b) Wentronic ceasing to be a shareholder in Cellnet; and
- (c) Wentronic failing to acquire a Relevant Interest of more than 50.1% of the Cellnet Shares before the end of the Offer Period.

8.5 Wentronic's cash reserves

After taking account of the total amount of funding described in section 8.4, Wentronic will provide the balance of the funding up to the Maximum Cash Consideration from its cash reserves which are not subject to any security interests, rights of set off or other commitments that may affect Wentronic's ability to use those cash reserves.

8.6 Maximum Cash Consideration

On the basis of the arrangements described above, Wentronic is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming the view, and it holds the view, that it will be able to pay the Maximum Cash Consideration required for the acquisition of Cellnet Shares pursuant to the Offer to satisfy its obligations under the Offer.

8.7 No financing conditions

The Offer is not subject to any financing conditions.

9 Tax considerations

9.1 Introduction

The following is intended to provide only a general overview of the Australian taxation implications for Australian taxation residents in disposing of Cellnet Shares. This summary is not intended to be comprehensive and is based upon the interpretation by Wentronic of income tax legislation currently in force at the date of this Bidder's Statement.

Cellnet Shareholders should not rely on these comments as tax advice in relation to their own affairs. The taxation laws are complex and there could be implications in addition to those generally described below. Cellnet Shareholders consult their own tax advisers for tax advice applicable to their individual circumstances. Wentronic does not accept any responsibility for the tax implications for individual Cellnet Shareholders.

The implications for foreign Cellnet Shareholders may vary according to their particular circumstances, including whether they hold the Cellnet Shares on revenue account and whether they are a resident of a country with which Australia has concluded a double tax agreement, which in turn may determine whether they will be taxed or not in Australia on a gain on disposal of their Cellnet Shares, and if so at what rate. Foreign taxation resident Cellnet Shareholders should consult their own tax advisers for tax advice applicable to their jurisdiction and individual circumstances.

9.2 Acceptance of the Offer and disposal of Cellnet Shares

Acceptance of the Offer will involve the disposal by Cellnet Shareholders of their Cellnet Shares. This change in the ownership of the Cellnet Shares will constitute a capital gains tax event for Australian Capital Gains Tax purposes.

Under the Australian Capital Gains Tax rules, Cellnet Shareholders who are Australian residents may make a capital gain or capital loss on the disposal of their Cellnet Shares acquired on or after 20 September 1985, depending on whether their capital proceeds from the disposal of their Cellnet Shares are more than the cost base (or in some cases indexed cost base) of their Cellnet Shares, or whether the capital proceeds are less than their reduced cost base of their Cellnet Shares.

The capital proceeds of the capital gains tax event will be the Offer Price of $0.28 per Cellnet Share received by the Cellnet Shareholders in respect of the disposal of their Cellnet Shares. The cost base of the Cellnet Shares is generally their cost of acquisition of their Cellnet Shares as well as any incidental costs associated with the acquisition (by way of example, legal expenses).

If the Cellnet Shares were acquired at or before 11:45 am on 21 September 1999 and held for at least 12 months before their disposal, a Cellnet Shareholder who is an individual, a complying superannuation entity or the trustee of a trust may choose to adjust the cost base of the Cellnet Shares to include indexation by reference to changes in the consumer price index from the calendar quarter in which the Cellnet Shares were acquired until the quarter ended 30 September 1999. Cellnet Shareholders that are companies must include that indexation adjustment if their Cellnet Shares were acquired at or before 11:45 am on 21 September 1999 and held for at least 12 months before their disposal. These indexation adjustments are taken into account only for the purposes of calculating a capital gain; they are ignored when calculating the amount of any capital loss.

Australian resident individuals, complying superannuation entities or trustees that have held their Cellnet Shares for at least 12 months but do not choose to index the cost base of their Cellnet Shares should be entitled to discount the amount of the capital gain (after application of capital losses) from the disposal of their Cellnet Shares by 50% in the case of individuals and trusts or by 33% for complying superannuation entities.

Capital gains and capital losses of a taxpayer in a year of income are aggregated to determine whether there is a net capital gain. Any net capital gain is included in assessable income and is subject to income tax. Capital losses may not be deducted against other income for income tax purposes, but may be carried forward to offset against future capital gains. However, where revenue losses carried forward are available these can be offset against the net capital gain.

If the Cellnet Shares are held on revenue account or as trading stock, the gains to the Shareholder on disposal of their Cellnet Shares may constitute assessable income to the Cellnet Shareholder which will not be subject to the Capital Gains Tax discounting rules previously described.

9.3 Goods and Services Tax

The GST consequences to a Cellnet Shareholder on disposal of their Cellnet Shares will depend on whether the Cellnet Shareholder is, or is required to be registered, or is not registered for GST purposes.

The supply of Cellnet Shares by a Cellnet Shareholder who is not registered and is not required to be registered for GST will not constitute a taxable supply, which means that GST is not applicable to the Cellnet Shareholder on the supply of the Cellnet Shares. These Cellnet Shareholders will not be entitled to claim input tax credits for GST charged to the Cellnet Shareholder on any acquisitions made by the Cellnet Shareholder (for example, legal or accounting fees), irrespective of the purpose for which the acquisitions are made.

The supply of Cellnet Shares by a Cellnet Shareholder who is registered, or is required to be registered for GST purposes, will constitute a supply of a security for GST purposes, which will be classified as an input taxed (financial supply). This means that the Cellnet Shareholder will not be liable to charge GST on the supply of their Cellnet Shares.

Further, a Cellnet Shareholder who is registered, or is required to be registered, for GST purposes may not be entitled to claim input tax credits for acquisitions made by them, which relate to the supply of the Cellnet Shares. For example, a Cellnet Shareholder may not be entitled to claim input tax credits for the GST paid on accounting or legal fees incurred by the Cellnet Shareholder, which relate to the supply of their Cellnet Shares. However, the denial of input tax credits for a Cellnet Shareholder is subject to the financial acquisitions threshold which provides that full input tax credits can be claimed for these acquisitions provided the supplier does not exceed this threshold. Cellnet Shareholders should consult their own GST advisors for GST advice in this regard.

Those Cellnet Shareholders who are not registered for GST will not be entitled to claim input tax credits for GST charged on any acquisitions made by the Cellnet Shareholder (for example, legal or accounting fees), irrespective of the purpose for which the acquisitions are made.

9.4 Stamp duty

No stamp duty is payable by Cellnet Shareholders in connection with the Offer.
