APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

SeaLink Travel Group (SLK: ASX) (SeaLink) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Andrew Muir as its Chief Financial Officer (CFO) effective 9 January 2017.

Mr Muir is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Master of Business Administration with substantial experience across ASX-listed and non-listed companies in a number of industries. He comes to SeaLink from his current position as a consultant to E&A Limited (EAL), having re-joined that company in 2015. Prior to this he held various financial and commercial senior management positions including ASX-listed Hills Limited (HIL) as Group General Manager of Business Development between 2003-2008, and then CFO and Company Secretary between 2008-2011 following his role as a Director at E&A Limited between 1998-2003.

Mr Muir also brings extensive experience in strategy and planning, debt and equity markets, mergers and acquisitions, and leadership of cost reduction programs.

Mr Jeff Ellison, Managing Director welcomes the appointment and said “we are delighted to have secured the talents and diverse skills that Andrew offers. His range of corporate experience, his familiarity with an ASX 300 organisation helps make him the ideal fit for our Group.”

Mr Muir will replace long-serving Chief Financial Officer, Trevor Waller, who as previously announced will retire on 31st March 2017. “On behalf of the Board and Company, I would like to thank Trevor for his dedicated service to SeaLink over the past 10 years and wish him all the best in his retirement” Mr Ellison said.
