Peter Gregg – ASIC Notification

Primary Health Care Limited ("Primary") today announced that it was informed late yesterday by Mr Peter Gregg, its Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, that he has been served with a Local Court attendance notice by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC"). ASIC alleges two contraventions of Section 1307(1) of the Corporations Act during his time as an officer of Leighton Holdings Limited.

Mr Gregg has informed Primary that he denies the allegations.

The Primary Board is meeting today and will continue to meet to review the implications of this development for the Primary Group and its stakeholders.

Primary Health Care is one of Australia's leading listed healthcare companies and has been providing quality, affordable and accessible healthcare to the people of Australia for more than 30 years. We have an expansive network of multi-disciplinary medical centres, pathology laboratories and diagnostic imaging centres, which are underpinned by our professional cohort of dedicated healthcare professionals. Primary's 'medical home' model makes healthcare services easily accessible and cost efficient, while enabling coordination and continuity of patient care. In 2016, Primary announced its expansion into the private billing GP market through Health & Co. At Primary Health Care we pride ourselves on quality outcomes for our patients and aspire to grow our network and cement our position as the leading provider of frontline care in Australia.
