ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Australian Financial Review Article 19 June 2017

McMillan Shakespeare Limited (ASX : MMS) notes that an article has been published in today's (19 June 2017) Australian Financial Review newspaper which asserts that a class action is being prepared by a Sydney law firm. While full details of the proposed claim have not been provided, we understand the nature of the claim may be based on allegations of unconscionable conduct in relation to a warranty product business operated by a subsidiary of Presidian Holdings Pty Ltd.

Presidian Holdings Pty Ltd was acquired in 2015.

No claim has been served on Presidian and accordingly, there are not sufficient facts to hand to comment on the likelihood, merits or otherwise of the proposed claim.

The MMS Group of Companies is committed to its responsibilities as a financial services business.

The warranty product business contributes approximately 5% of Group underlying net profit after tax (UNPATA).

Further details of the matters outlined above will be provided if and when they are made available.
