Syama Update

Resolute Mining Limited (ASX:RSG) (Resolute or the Company) advises the Company has received a notice from the Local Union Committee of the Union Nationale des Travailleurs du Mali Somisy-SA (the Union). The notice informs that the Union will enforce a 120 hour strike order at the Syama Gold Mine in Mali commencing at midnight on Monday 31 July 2017. Daily operations at Syama currently involve approximately 1,800 personnel of which approximately 490 are members of the Union. The strike action will not affect surface or underground mining activity at Syama and will not have a material effect on gold production.

Resolute confirms the strike notice will have no impact on Resolute's recently announced FY18 production guidance of 300,000 ounces at All-In Sustaining Costs of A$1,280/oz (US$960/oz).
