Camperdown's CNCA registration suspension lifted

Further to our announcement on Friday, 7 July 2017 and Tuesday 11 July 2017 Bellamy's Australia Limited (Bellamy's or the Company) is pleased to announce that today Camperdown Powder Pty Limited's (Camperdown) suspended license from the Certification Accreditation Administration of the People's Republic of China (CNCA) has been lifted.

Bellamy's has diligently responded to all requests and queries on behalf of the CNCA and worked, with the assistance of Australian officials, through the process as stipulated by the Chinese authorities. The Company is pleased those responses have been accepted by the CNCA.

In response to the lifting of the suspension, Mr Andrew Cohen, CEO of Bellamy's, stated,

'We are pleased that Camperdown's suspended registration has today been lifted. Bellamy's appreciates the important role the CNCA has in protecting Chinese consumers and the support of the Australia trade officials in assisting us throughout this process'.
