DECMIL AWARDED NEW BHP WESTERN AUSTRALIA IRON ORE CONTRACT

- Initial works contract for BHP Western Australia Iron Ore at its South Flank project
- Civil and enabling works for the Mulla Mulla Village Expansion

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) ("Decmil" or "Company") is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Decmil Australia Pty Ltd ("Decmil Australia") has been awarded a new contract.

Decmil Australia has secured a circa ~$13m contract with BHP Billiton Iron Ore Pty Ltd ("BHP") to conduct initial works at its South Flank project. The scope of the project includes civil and enabling works for the expansion of the Mulla Mulla village. The village expansion is required to support current operations at Mining Area C and will also support the South Flank project, subject to it being approved.

The Company currently has project teams at a number of major WA Iron Ore projects and this contract adds to Decmil's almost 40 years of experience as a contractor to the sector and a long relationship with BHP's Iron Ore division.

Work is expected to commence shortly.
