New executive appointments and leadership structure

Beach Energy Limited (ASX: BPT, "Beach") is pleased to announce the new executive team that will lead the company following completion of the acquisition of Lattice Energy. These appointments result from an extensive recruitment process to bring to Beach upstream oil and gas expertise, leading global energy company experience, and extensive offshore operations exposure.

The acquisition of Lattice Energy transforms Beach from a single basin onshore producer to one with multiple producing basins, onshore and offshore production, significant gas processing infrastructure, and operations across Australia and New Zealand. Accordingly, the expanded leadership team is functionally structured to ensure focus on safety and process remains paramount, while development and growth plans are executed with appropriate expertise.

The executive leadership team is set out below. Further details and biographies are contained in the appendices.
