

Independent non-executive Board appointment

Bingo Industries Limited (“Bingo” ASX:BIN) today announced the appointment of Mr Barry Buffier to the Board as an independent non-executive director.

Mr Buffier has had an extensive career in the public and private sector, most recently holding the role as Chairman and CEO of the NSW Environment Protection Authority (EPA) from 2012 to 2018. Prior to this, between 2009 to 2012, Mr Buffier was Deputy Director General of the Industry & Investment NSW State & Regional Development and Tourism Division. He has also held Director-General roles at both the NSW Department of State & Regional Development and NSW Department of Primary Industries.

Chairman of Bingo Mr Michael Coleman, said, “Mr Buffier’s extensive experience across important regulatory areas that directly impact Bingo was a very valuable addition to the Board”.

“As a business we work closely with the Government to help drive positive regulatory change for the industry, particularly in relation to the need for sustainable waste management practices and higher levels of recycling. Barry’s firsthand knowledge of waste regulation, alongside his executive responsibility in substantial strategic, operational financial roles, makes him an ideal fit for Bingo’s Board.”

Mr Buffier, said, “Bingo is leading the industry in driving important positive change for the waste sector. I look forward to working with the board and management team to continue the role of the ongoing development of sustainable recycling and waste management practices.”
