Incitec Pivot Contract Extension

An error has been identified in the announcement lodged with the ASX this morning in relation to the Incitec Pivot Contract Extension.

The original announcement contained a statement "Flying into Phosphate Hill commenced in 2002 – the same year in which Alliance was established and we are delighted to have retained this foundation contract for a further five years."

The time frame referenced in the above statement should have read "three years plus a two year option". An amended announcement is attached below in full.

Incitec Pivot Contract Extension

- Alliance extends air charter services contract for Incitec Pivot.
- Extension of contracted flying for Incitec Pivot into Phosphate Hill until 2021.
- Alliance commenced operations into Phosphate Hill in 2002 and has provided continuous service for a 16 year period.

Alliance today announced it had signed a contract extension with Incitec Pivot for a further period.

Alliance has been providing air charter services to Phosphate Hill in North West Queensland since 2002.

Lee Schofield, Alliance's Chief Executive Officer, said "Alliance is delighted to continue our long term relationship with Incitec Pivot."

"Flying into Phosphate Hill commenced in 2002 – the same year in which Alliance was established and we are delighted to have retained this foundation contract for a further three years with a two year option. By the conclusion of this new contract Alliance will have been flying into Phosphate Hill for a minimum continuous period of 19 years."

Mr Schofield further stated, "We are very proud of this extension and consider it a great acknowledgement of our ability to provide Incitec Pivot with safe, reliable, and cost effective services from our Townsville and Brisbane bases."
