

NOTIFICATION OF CLAIM

Melbourne, Australia, 20 August 2018

Ridley Corporation Limited (Ridley) (ASX:RIC) advises that it has been notified of proceedings having been commenced against it by a customer, Baiada, in respect of stockfeed manufactured by Ridley for Baiada at its Wasleys feedmill in South Australia “between about 2014 until about October 2017.”

Baiada, through its operating entities Baiada Poultry Pty Limited and BPL Adelaide Pty Limited, is, and has been for many years, a significant customer of Ridley, and one which Ridley is continuing to supply. The claim does not specify the quantum of damages, or other compensation, that Baiada is seeking.

Ridley believes the claim is not of merit, and as such it will be vigorously defended. Ridley's insurers have been notified of the claim and, if required, Ridley believes insurance cover exists in respect of the claim.

The market will be updated as required.
