Early-stage technology expert joins LiveTiles Board

- David Lemphers, an early-stage technology expert with deep software engineering expertise joins the LiveTiles Board as Non-Executive Director
- He is founder and co-founder of several artificial intelligence and machine learning-based technology companies, including ZenDeals which was sold to RetailMeNot in 2013
- David brings an in-depth understanding of the Microsoft ecosystem where he previously was responsible for Microsoft's design and development of self-learning computer systems
- His appointment is expected to bring new and valuable insights, which can be leveraged to further inform product development and sales and marketing strategy

LiveTiles Limited (ASX:LVT) ('LiveTiles' or 'the Company'), a global software company that empowers its users to create their own intelligent workplace experiences, is pleased to announce the appointment of David Lemphers to the Board of Directors as Non-Executive Director, effective 1 September 2018.

Based in the USA in Austin, Texas, David is a software engineering and technology expert with deep experience founding and running early-stage technology companies. His extensive experience includes multiple roles held at Microsoft, most recently as Principal Software Development Engineer Lead, where he was responsible for Microsoft's design and development of cognitive (self-learning) systems using artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML). Previously, as Director of Cloud Computing and SaaS at Pricewaterhouse Coopers, David was responsible for developing cloud strategies for Fortune 100 clients.

David is founder and co-founder of several AI and ML-based tech companies, including Code Pilot, Super, Hyperplane Research and ZenDeals – a machine learning based validation system for online coupons that was acquired by RetailMeNot in 2013. David is CTO in Residence and mentor at tech startup accelerator Techstars and holds degrees in Computer Science and Software Engineering from Swinburne University of Technology, Melbourne and a degree in Law from Monash University, Melbourne.

Commenting on his appointment, David Lemphers, Non-Executive Director states: "I'm excited to join the LiveTiles board and look forward to working with the team. LiveTiles is truly making its mark as it continues to win over large enterprise customers with its innovative software and AI-driven offerings. I'm looking forward to being part of its ongoing success and working closely with the leadership team."

Cassandra Kelly, Non-Executive Chair comments: "The LiveTiles Board and management team are pleased and excited to welcome David to the team. David's deep experience in early-stage tech, expertise in artificial intelligence and machine learning, plus strong understanding of the Microsoft ecosystem will undoubtedly bring new and valuable insight that we can leverage in our ongoing product development and sales and marketing strategy."
