ARQ GROUP (ASX: ARQ)

Change to Arq Group Executive Leadership Team

Arq Group today announces changes to its Executive Leadership Team.

Emma Hunt – Managing Director SMB – Parental Leave

Ms Emma Hunt, Managing Director of SMB will commence a period of 12 months parental leave in late February.

Arq Group CEO, Martin Mercer, said “Emma has made a significant contribution to the growth of the SMB business and Arq Group since joining the Company in August, 2016. The Board and I wish her well as she commences her parental leave and look forward to welcoming her back in 2020.”

Brett Fenton – Change of Role

Brett Fenton, currently Chief Technology Officer, will assume the leadership of our SMB business for the duration of Ms Hunt’s parental leave.

Arq Group CEO, Martin Mercer, said “I am pleased to announce Brett’s appointment as acting Managing Director of SMB. Brett joined Arq Group when Netregistry was acquired and, in addition to his current role as Chief Technology Officer, has previously held other executive roles including Chief Customer Officer of Arq and Chief Operating Officer of Netregistry. This experience made Brett the ideal internal candidate to act as Managing Director during Emma’s parental leave, and the Board and I are looking forward to seeing him lead, and grow, the SMB business during this period.”

Brett will retain his role as Chief Technology Officer whilst he is acting Managing Director of SMB.

Arq Group CEO, Martin Mercer, said “Brett’s change of role demonstrates the depth of talent we have at Arq and I look forward to working with Brett and supporting him as he takes on these additional responsibilities”.
