Company Announcements
Australian Securities Exchange

UGL Class Action Update

Shareholders of CAM will be aware that your company is the lead applicant in a shareholder class action against UGL Pty Ltd (UGL). This class action alleges that shareholders suffered loss due to non disclosure of material information by UGL in 2014 in relation to the Ichthys LNG project.

CAM is pleased today to advise that an in principle settlement has been reached by the parties, with the key conditions being the parties reaching agreement on the terms of a deed of settlement and on the approval of the Federal Court of Australia.

Please refer to the attached ASX release by litigation funder IMF Bentham Ltd in relation to the conditional settlement.

RELEASE TO AUSTRALIAN SECURITIES EXCHANGE

FRIDAY, 9 AUGUST 2019

CONDITIONAL SETTLEMENT – AUSTRALIAN SHAREHOLDER CLASS ACTION

Summary

- IMF announces the in-principle settlement of the UGL Pty Ltd (“UGL”) securities class action.
- IMF expects to generate income of approximately $8.3 million.
- This investment is held on IMF’s own balance sheet.

Conditional Settlement – Australian Class Action

IMF Bentham Limited (IMF) refers to its previous announcements in relation to the UGL class action dated 28 September 2016 and 19 December 2017 and announces that the parties to the UGL proceedings have entered into an in-principle agreement to settle the proceedings for an agreed sum (Settlement).

The Settlement is conditional on the parties reaching agreement on the terms of a deed of settlement and on the approval of the Federal Court of Australia.

If the Settlement becomes unconditional, IMF currently expects to generate income of approximately $8.3 million, including reimbursement of project costs. This investment is part of IMF’s on-balance sheet portfolio.

IMF background
