Resignation of Richard Wrightson as EGM, Wholesale Markets

20 August 2019

AGL Energy Limited (AGL) today announced that Richard Wrightson has resigned from the role of Executive General Manager, Wholesale Markets.

AGL CEO Brett Redman said "Richard has made a significant contribution during his time at AGL. He has been a passionate supporter of AGL and has established a strong foundation for growth and transformation in the future. We thank Richard for his service and wish him well in his future career."

Richard will continue in his role until early 2020 and will work closely with the CEO and AGL's Wholesale Markets team to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of the role.
