Qube Holdings Appoints New Director to the Board

qube.com.au

Qube today announces the appointment of Ms Jackie McArthur to the board of directors of Qube Holdings Limited effective from 17 August 2020.

Ms McArthur has more than 20 years' experience at executive and board level roles in general management and strategy, supply chain and logistics, operations, food and packaging manufacturing, emerging brand issues and crisis management, corporate social responsibility, governance, engineering and information technology.

Qube chairman Allan Davies said he was delighted that Ms McArthur had agreed to join the Qube board, "Jackie will bring new perspectives and broaden the skillset of the board."

Ms McArthur has been the Managing Director of Martin-Brower ANZ, a global leading distributor and supply chain services provider. She has also held various senior executive positions with McDonalds, both in Australia and overseas, including Vice President of Supply Chain for Asia, Pacific, Middle East and Africa and as Senior Vice President Chief Restaurant Support Officer and Vice President Supply Chain Director.

Ms McArthur was the 2016 Telstra NSW Business Woman of the Year and overall 2016 Telstra Business Women's Awards – Corporate and Private National Winner.

She has completed the INSEAD International Executive Program and has a Bachelor of Engineering from the University of Sydney.

Ms McArthur is also a Non-Executive Director of Ingham's, Tassal and Invocare and a member of the AICD.
