ASX Release – Company Announcement

Resignation of Chief Financial Officer

Nufarm Chief Financial Officer, Paul Binfield, has today advised the company of his resignation to pursue the next step in his career. Mr Binfield will leave Nufarm on 31 December 2020.

Nufarm Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, Greg Hunt, thanked Mr Binfield for his valuable contribution. “Paul is a highly respected senior executive and has been an integral part of the Nufarm leadership team through a period of significant change. I am very appreciative of everything he has done for Nufarm and the support he has provided me personally. On behalf of the Board and everyone at Nufarm, I thank him for his commitment and wish him every success for the future.”

Nufarm has commenced a process to appoint a successor.
