SUMMARY & OUTLOOK

GEORGE FRAZIS

MANAGING DIRECTOR AND CEO

1. Focus has been on supporting our customers and people during COVID-19
2. Delivered solid revenue growth in a challenging year, with momentum continuing
3. Prudent COVID-19 collective overlay and strong capital, positions us well for the future
4. Executing on our strategy as planned, overcoming legacy structural disadvantages
5. Leaning into a health and economic crisis that has been well managed by the Government and regulators

1. Uncertain outlook given COVID-19, but Australia relatively well placed
 - Less likelihood of downside scenarios on unemployment and house prices given Government stimulus – uncertainty until vaccine developed
2. Remain committed to transformation strategy and capital investment of $100m
3. Expecting broadly neutral jaws
 - Above system growth in lending
 - Margin managed to within 2-4bps decline
 - Cost growth of c.2%
4. Prudent collective provision COVID-19 overlay taken in FY20 for anticipated lifetime losses
5. Continuation of strong balance sheet with CET1 ratio remaining above the top end of our target range
6. Return to sustainable profitable growth, supporting returns to shareholders and dividends

NON-INTEREST INCOME

DECLINING NON-INTEREST INCOME IN LINE WITH INDUSTRY TRENDS AND COVID WAIVERS AND REDUCTIONS

SUMMARY

- Non-interest income declined by $18m due to:
 - Ongoing industry trends towards low and no fee products
 - COVID-19 impacts including reduced transaction and dishonour fee income, removal of certain fee charges and the suspension of Velocity aligned offers
 - Reduction in debtor finance fees following the sale of the business in 2H19

COLLECTIVE PROVISION DRIVERS

INCREASED PROVISIONS IN LIGHT OF ECONOMIC UNCERTAINTY

SUMMARY

- FY20 COVID-19 related collective provision totals $133m
- Increase provision is the result of a change in forecast assumptions towards higher unemployment, downgrades to property prices, and increased duration of the economic downturn
- Probability weightings to the downside and severe case scenarios have increased

CAPITAL, FUNDING & LIQUIDITY

SUMMARY

- The cash rate cuts and associated lower interest rate environment has impacted NIM by 5bps in 2H20
- This is due to a 2bps reduction on the replicating portfolio, and an additional 3bps reduction on the uninvested free funding and low cost deposits

REPLICATING PORTFOLIO AND EQUITY HEDGE (%)

	Aug 20 Balance $bn	2H20 Avg Return	Exit Return Rate	Avg term

Uninvested and free funding	2.6	0.15%	0.13%	3mth

HEDGING COSTS - BASIS RISK

SUMMARY

- The impacts of hedging costs improved NIM by 4bps in 2H20
- Average basis portfolio spreads reduced from 24bps to 17bps during the period

LONG TERM BASIS RISK AVG - 25BPS

SUMMARY

- Funding loan growth with stable sources of funding, including customer deposits and long term wholesale
- Growth in deposits contributed to increased deposit to loan ratio and is a result of government initiatives and COVID-19 elevated liquidity

DEPOSIT TO LOAN RATIO

USES & SOURCES OF FUNDING – FY20 ($BN)

SUMMARY

- Strong liquidity with LCR at 164% and NSFR at 119%, well above regulatory targets
- Prudent approach to managing liquidity which held us in a good position during the market dislocation in COVID-19
- Well positioned to support future growth

NSFR MOVEMENT – FY20 119%

LCR QUARTERLY AVERAGE – FY20 164%

ECONOMIC ASSUMPTIONS

MACRO ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT IMPROVING, BUT SIGNIFICANT UNCERTAINTY REMAINS

MACRO ECONOMIC

- Economy is improving although the recovery is likely to be bumpy with uncertain strength
- Greatest uncertainty remains the health crisis, and that is unlikely to be resolved until vaccine or effective treatment is found
- Government and regulatory response has significantly cushioned the decline
- Balance sheet strength of Government, RBA and the Banks remains a significant positive

CONSUMER

- Consumer and business confidence is improving
- Peak of the unemployment rate likely to be in 2020
- Household incomes significantly aided by forthcoming tax cuts, Government programs and interest payment holidays.
- House price decline has not been as significant as feared, although positive growth not expected until 2H21.

BUSINESS

- This recession has hit most service sectors hard
- Government programs have also aided many firms
- Some business models will not survive the downturn
- SMEs should benefit from Budget announcements
- Agribusiness is doing well
