IMPORTANT VOTING INFORMATIONVOTING EXCLUSIONS*Voting exclusion for Resolution 3 - Remuneration Report

A vote on Resolution 3 must not be cast (in any capacity) by, or on behalf of, the following persons:

- a) a member of Pacific Current's Key Management Personnel (KMP) whose remuneration details are included in the 2020 Remuneration Report; or
- b) a closely related party of such a KMP (including close family members and companies the KMP controls).

However, a person described above may cast a vote on Resolution 3 as a proxy, if the vote is not cast on behalf of a person described above and either:

- a) the proxy appointment is in writing and specifies the way the proxy is to vote the resolution (e.g. for, against, abstain) on; or
- b) the vote is cast by the Chair of the AGM and the appointment of the Chair as proxy:
 - i) does not specify the way the proxy is to vote on the resolution; and
 - ii) expressly authorises the Chair to exercise the proxy even if the resolution is connected directly or indirectly with the remuneration of a member of the KMP.

In accordance with section 250BD of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act), a vote must not be cast on Resolution 3 as a proxy by a member of the KMP at the date of the AGM, or a closely related party of such a KMP, unless it is cast as proxy for a person entitled to vote in accordance with their directions. This restriction on voting undirected proxies does not apply to the Chair of the AGM where the proxy appointment expressly authorises the Chair of the AGM to exercise undirected proxies even if the resolution is connected, directly or indirectly, with the remuneration of the KMP.

KMP has the meaning as set out in the Corporations Act and refers to Directors of Pacific Current and those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of Pacific Current, directly or indirectly. Closely related party has the same meaning as set out in the Corporations Act.

Voting exclusion for Resolution 4 – Increase in Non-Executive Director's Fee Pool

The Company will disregard any votes cast in favour of Resolution 4 by or on behalf of any Director of the Company or any of their respective Associates.

However, this does not apply to a vote cast in favour of Resolution 4 by:

- a person as proxy or attorney for a person who is entitled to vote on Item 4, in accordance with the directions given to the proxy or attorney to vote on Item 4 in that way; or

- the Chair of the Meeting as proxy or attorney for a person who is entitled to vote on Item 4, in accordance with a direction given to the Chair of the Meeting to vote on Item 4 as the Chair decides; or
- a holder acting solely in a nominee, trustee, custodial or other fiduciary capacity on behalf of a beneficiary provided that:
 - the beneficiary provides written confirmation to the holder that the beneficiary is not excluded from voting, and is not an Associate of a person excluded from voting, on the Item; and
 - the holder votes on the Item in accordance with the directions given by the beneficiary to the holder to vote in that way.

In addition, a vote must not be cast on Resolution 4 by any person who is a KMP member at the time this item is voted on at the AGM, or by any of their Closely Related Parties, acting as proxy for a person entitled to vote, if their appointment does not specify the way the proxy is to vote on Item 4. This restriction on voting undirected proxies does not apply to the Chair of the Meeting acting as proxy for a person entitled to vote on Resolution 4 because the Company's proxy appointment expressly authorises the Chair of the Meeting to exercise undirected proxies even if the resolution is connected, directly or indirectly, with the remuneration of the KMP.

The Company will apply the above voting exclusions to persons appointed as an attorney by a shareholder to participate and vote at the AGM under a power of attorney, as if they were appointed as a proxy.

ENTITLEMENT TO ATTEND AND VOTE

In accordance with regulation 7.11.37 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth), the Board has determined that persons who are registered holders of Pacific Current shares as at 7:00pm AEDT on Wednesday, 18 November 2020 will be entitled to attend and vote at the AGM as a shareholder.

If more than one joint holder of shares is present at the AGM (whether personally, by proxy, by attorney, or by representative) and tenders a vote, only the vote of the joint holder whose name appears first on the register will be counted.

Appointment of Proxy

If you are a shareholder entitled to attend and vote, you may appoint an individual or a body corporate as a proxy. If a body corporate is appointed as a proxy, that body corporate must ensure that it appoints a corporate representative in accordance with section 250D of the Corporations Act to exercise its powers as proxy at the AGM.

A proxy need not be a shareholder of Pacific Current.

A shareholder may appoint up to two proxies and specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy may exercise. If the shareholder does not specify the proportion or number of votes to be exercised, each proxy may exercise half of the shareholder's votes.

To be effective, the proxy must be received at Pacific Current's Share Registry no later than 10:00am AEDT on Wednesday, 18 November 2020 (48 hours before AGM). Proxies must be received before that time by one of the following methods:

The Chair of the AGM intends to vote all undirected proxies in favour of each resolution.

Corporate Representatives

A body corporate which is a shareholder, or which has been appointed as a proxy, is entitled to appoint any person to act as its representative at the AGM. The appointment of the representative must comply with the requirements under section 250D of the Corporations Act. The representative should bring to the AGM a properly executed letter or other document confirming its authority to act as the company's representative.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

INTRODUCTION

This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared for the information of shareholders of Pacific Current (Shareholders) in relation to the business to be conducted at the virtual AGM to be held at on Friday, 20 November 2020, commencing at 10:00am AEDT.

This Explanatory Memorandum forms part of the Notice of Meeting, which should be read in its entirety. This Explanatory Memorandum contains the information, terms and conditions on which the Resolutions will be voted.

Subject to the abstentions noted below, the Directors unanimously recommend Shareholders vote in favour of all Resolutions.

Resolutions 1, 2 and 4 are ordinary resolutions, which require a simple majority of votes cast by Shareholders present and entitled to vote on the resolution. Resolution 3, relating to the Remuneration Report, is advisory and does not bind the Directors or the Company. Resolution 5, relating to the adoption of a new constitution, is a special resolution which requires a 75% majority of votes cast by Shareholders present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

Shareholders should read the Notice of Meeting including this Explanatory Memorandum carefully before deciding how to vote on the Resolutions.

1. CONSIDERATION OF REPORTS

In accordance with section 317(1) of the Corporations Act, the Financial Report, the Directors' Report and the Independent Auditor's Report for the year ended 30 June 2020 (which are contained in the 2020 Annual Report), will be presented for consideration.

A printed copy of the 2020 Annual Report, or an email advising that the 2020 Annual Report is available on Pacific Current's website at:

<https://paccurrent.com/shareholders/document-library/annual-report/>

has been sent to each shareholder who has requested a copy.

Following the Consideration of Reports, the Chair will give Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about, or comment upon, the management of Pacific Current.

The Chair will also provide Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, the Company's Auditor, questions relevant to:

- the conduct of the audit;
- the preparation and content of the Independent Auditor's Report;

- the accounting policies adopted by Pacific Current in relation to the preparation of the financial statements; and
- the independence of the Auditor.

The Chair will also give the Auditor a reasonable opportunity to answer written questions submitted by Shareholders relating to the content of the Independent Auditor's Report or the conduct of the audit.

A list of written questions to the Auditor submitted by Shareholders, if any, will be made available to shareholders online at the start of the AGM, and any written answers tabled at the AGM by the Auditor will be made available as soon as practicable.

2. RE-ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

RESOLUTION 1 - RE-ELECTION OF ANTONY (TONY) ROBINSON

Mr Antony (Tony) Robinson was appointed as a non-executive director on 28 August 2015 and became an executive director on 20 April 2016 before returning to a non-executive director on 1 September 2018. Tony assumed the role of Chair of Pacific Current on 1 October 2018. In accordance with rule 7.1(f) of the Constitution, Tony Robinson retires from office at the conclusion of the AGM and is eligible for re-election as a Director of the Company. If Shareholders do not approve the re-election of Tony Robinson then he will cease to be a Director at the conclusion of the Meeting.

ASX Listing Rule 14.4 provides that a director of an entity must not hold office (without re-election) past the third annual general meeting following the director's appointment or 3 years, whichever is longer.

The Board considered whether Tony Robinson had any interest, position or relationship that may interfere with his independence as a Director, having regard to the relevant factors as set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles & Recommendations (4th edition) (ASX Principles). The Board considers that Tony Robinson (if re-elected), will continue to be an independent Director.

Tony has significant expertise and experience across a number of industries, including banking, financial services, telecommunications, and transport. He is an experienced company director and Chief Executive Officer. Tony is currently a Director of Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Limited and Managing Director of PSC Insurance Group Limited. He was a former director of Tasfoods Limited and Longtable Group Ltd (formerly Primary Opinion Ltd). His previous executive roles include Managing Director of IOOF Ltd and OAMPS Limited. Tony holds a Bachelor of Commerce and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Melbourne.

Tony is a member of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Remuneration, Nomination and Governance Committee.

The Board supports the re-election of Tony Robinson as he contributes to the Board significant experience as set out above.

Directors' Recommendation

For the reasons set out above, the Directors (with Mr Robinson abstaining) recommend you vote in favour of Resolution 1.

RESOLUTION 2 - RE-ELECTION OF PETER KENNEDY

Mr Peter Kennedy was appointed as a non-executive director on 4 June 2003. In accordance with rule 7.1(f) of the Constitution, Peter Kennedy retires from office at the conclusion of the AGM and is eligible for re-election as a Director of the Company. If Shareholders do not approve the re-election of Peter Kennedy then he will cease to be a Director at the conclusion of the Meeting.

ASX Listing Rule 14.4 provides that a director of an entity must not hold office (without re-election) past the third annual general meeting following the director's appointment or 3 years, whichever is longer.

The Board considered whether Peter Kennedy had any interest, position or relationship that may interfere with his independence as a Director, having regard to the relevant factors as set out in the ASX ASX Principles. The Board considers that Peter Kennedy (if re-elected), will continue to be an independent Director.

Peter is the founding partner of the commercial law firm, Madgwicks Lawyers, and has more than 40 years' experience in commercial law advising a broad range of clients across a variety of sectors. He is a member of the Madgwicks' Dispute Resolution practice. Having been Madgwicks' Managing Partner for over 15 years, he plays an integral role in the governance and management of the firm. Peter also sits on the boards of a number of companies in the manufacturing, property and retail industries. Peter is Chair of Treasury Group Investment Services Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of Pacific Current. Peter's formal qualifications include a B.Ec, LL.B., LL.M (Tax) from Monash University.

Peter is the Chair of the Remuneration, Nomination and Governance Committee and is a member of the Audit and Risk Committee.

The Board supports the re-election of Peter Kennedy as he contributes to the Board significant experience as set out above.

Directors' Recommendation

For the reasons set out above, the Directors (with Mr Kennedy abstaining) recommend you vote in favour of Resolution 2.

3. RESOLUTION 3 - REMUNERATION REPORT

Section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act requires that Pacific Current put to a shareholder vote, a resolution that the Remuneration Report dealing with the remuneration of directors and key management personnel (KMP) of the Company (Remuneration Report) be adopted. The vote is advisory only and does not bind the Directors or Pacific Current, although Pacific Current takes the outcome of the vote into consideration in determining remuneration policy going forward.

The Remuneration Report is contained in the Directors' Report set out at pages 20 to 37 of the 2020 Annual Report, which is available on Pacific Current's website:

<https://pacurrent.com/shareholders/document-library/annual-report/>.

The Remuneration Report:

- explains Pacific Current's executive remuneration framework and objectives, and the link between the remuneration of Executives and Pacific Current's performance;
- sets out remuneration details for each Director and for each executive with authority and responsibility for directing the affairs of the Company; and
- makes clear that the basis for remunerating Non-Executive Directors is distinct from the basis for remunerating Executives, including Executive Directors.

The Chair will give Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about, or make comments on, the Remuneration Report.

An Advisory Resolution that the Remuneration Report for the year ended 30 June 2020 is adopted will then be put to a Shareholder vote.

Directors' Recommendation

The Directors recommend you vote in favour of Resolution 3.

4. RESOLUTION 4 – INCREASE IN NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S FEE POOL

Under Article 7.3(b) of the Company's constitution and ASX Listing Rule 10.17, the maximum aggregate amount payable as remuneration to Non-Executive Directors in any year must not exceed an amount determined by the Company at a general meeting. Under ASX Listing Rule 10.17, the Company must not increase the total aggregate amount of directors' fees payable to all of its Non-Executive Directors without the approval of Shareholders. The current Fee Pool of $650,000 has not increased for 14 years, having been approved by Shareholders at the 2006 Annual General Meeting.

Directors are seeking approval from Shareholders to increase the Fee Pool by $100,000 from $650,000 to $750,000.

The Board is seeking an increase to the Fee Pool at this time for the following reasons:

- the Board currently comprises five Non-Executive Directors and the Managing Director, reflecting the growth, scale and increasing complexity of the Company, as well as the increasing governance, legal and regulatory obligations on listed companies;
- consistent with the increase in governance, legal and regulatory obligations on listed companies, there has been a concomitant change in the role and responsibilities for Non-Executive Directors;
- to remunerate Non-Executive Directors appropriately for the expectations placed on them by the Company and the regulatory environment in which it operates, and thereby attract and retain high calibre people; and
- to allow for future changes in Board remuneration structures and quantum to reflect market practice and benchmarking movements.

The Directors are satisfied that the proposed Fee Pool is commensurate with the fee pool applying to peer companies and that the proposed increase is reasonable and appropriate for the reasons set out above.

Details of fees paid to Non-Executive Directors for the year ended 30 June 2020 are provided on pages 32 to 33 of the Company's 2020 Annual Report. If Shareholder approval is obtained for the increase of the Fee Pool, the increase of the fee pool will take effect on and from 1 July 2021. If Shareholder approval is not obtained, the Fee Pool will remain at $650,000.

No securities have been issued to any Non-Executive Director of the Company under ASX Listing Rules 10.11 or 10.14 at any time within the last three years.

Directors' Recommendation

As Non-Executive Directors have an interest in resolution 4, the Directors have not made a recommendation on this resolution.

5. RESOLUTION 5 – ADOPTION OF NEW CONSTITUTION

Background and reasons for the proposal

The constitution of the Company was adopted on 17 December 1999 (Constitution). Since adoption, the only modification to the Constitution was on 15 October 2015 to reflect a change of the Company's name to Pacific Current Group Limited.

The Company has recently undertaken a review of the Constitution and proposes to repeal and replace the Constitution to make a number of modifications to reflect certain changes to corporate governance practice, the Corporations Act and Listing Rules of the ASX (Listing Rules), and also to generally update certain legacy provisions and outdated terminology. A number of the proposed changes also seek to achieve efficient and flexible administration of the Company and relations with Shareholders.

Under section 136 of the Corporations Act, amendments to the Constitution may only be made by a special resolution of Shareholders. If Shareholder approval is not obtained, the existing Constitution will remain in place.

Overview of proposed amendments to the Constitution

An overview of the key differences between the Constitution and the proposed new constitution are detailed in the table below. A copy of the proposed new constitution is attached at Annexure A and is available from the Company's website at:

<https://paccurrent.com/shareholders/document-library/annual-general-meeting/>

Summary of proposed change(s)

Dividends

- The new constitution makes clear (consistent with the Corporations Act) that directors may rescind or alter a determination to pay a dividend at any time before the payment is made.
- The new constitution reflects that one of the payment methods for a dividend (or any other payment to a Shareholder) can be by means of a direct credit or other method determined by the Directors, and to clarify that:
 - payments by cheque are at the risk of the Shareholder, and any cheque not presented for payment within 3 months may be cancelled by the Company; and
 - if a cheque is not presented for payment within 3 months or a direct credit is unsuccessful as a result of incorrect payment details being provided by or on behalf of a Shareholder, the money will be taken to be an unclaimed amount and may be invested or otherwise used by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed, or may be disposed of according to law.

Summary of proposed change(s)	Summary of proposed change(s)
Small holdings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The new constitution provides for a mechanism for the Company to compulsorily offer for sale unmarketable parcels of shares, if notice of such an intention is given to the Shareholder holding the unmarketable parcel and the Shareholder does not otherwise inform the Company that it wishes to retain the shares. This will allow the Company to take steps to provide Shareholders holding unmarketable parcels of shares with an ability to exit their shareholding, when they may not otherwise be able to do so. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To facilitate the direct voting arrangements, the Directors will be authorised to prescribe rules governing direct voting.
General Meetings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> In line with the current requirements under the Corporations Act, the new constitution provides that a single director is able to call a general meeting of the Company. The new constitution specifically provides, subject to any requirements of the Corporations Act, for a meeting to be held using one or more technologies that give Shareholders as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to ensure that persons participating using technology are counted for the purposes of determining a quorum and are entitled to exercise all rights as if they were attending the meeting in person. Provisions have also been included to deal with the scenario whereby technical difficulties occur – including to allow the chair to adjourn the meeting to allow the technical difficulty to be rectified. These amendments are intended to enable greater participation by, and engagement with, Shareholders.	Directors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The period for nominations for election as a director will be extended from a least 30 business days prior to the meeting to at least 45 business days but no more than 90 business days prior to the meeting, in order to better align the new constitution with market practice and to facilitate adequate time for the Company to comply with its notice period requirements and to print and distribute the relevant materials to Shareholders after a nomination is received. Further, the provisions dealing with nominations for election as a director now require a nomination of a person who is not a current director, or who is not nominated by the board, to be signed by a member of the Company. The provisions dealing with director remuneration will be expanded to align with the Listing Rules by clarifying that the amount of remuneration payable to Directors (as determined by the Company in general meeting) does not include remuneration in the form of share, option or other equity plans approved separately by the Company in general meeting. The new constitution will also clarify that the amount of the total remuneration cap that is able to be paid to directors is inclusive of superannuation.
Direct Voting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The new constitution will allow direct voting (whereby Shareholders may lodge a vote directly with the Company by way of post, fax or other electronic means, without having to attend a meeting or appoint a proxy or representative). A direct vote will have the same effect as a vote cast in person at a meeting. Direct voting addresses deficiencies in existing voting procedures by facilitating greater voting participation and minimises the potential risks of a proxy vote not being cast. 	Consequential and Other Amendments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A number of additional minor changes are incorporated in the new constitution – including in order to give effect to the changes summarised above and updates to terminology and to ensure that the new constitution reflects current law and practice. The new constitution also provides that the Company is able to charge a reasonable fee in order to register a transfer of securities. The ASX listing rules generally prohibit charging such a fee, but do provide that a company may charge a fee in certain narrow circumstances with respect to registering paper-based transfers. This provision allows the Company to charge a fee in those circumstances in order to cover the additional administrative costs associated with such a registration.

Summary of proposed change(s)

- The provisions dealing with methods of service expand the methods by which the Company may communicate with Shareholders. In particular, the Company may give a document by notifying Shareholders (by electronic means) that the document is available and how and where the document may be accessed.
- This will enable the Company to realise efficiency gains and cost savings in the distribution of notices and will increase flexibility for Shareholders in the way they receive communications from the Company.

Directors' Recommendation

The Directors recommend you vote in favour of Resolution 5.

1.5 Payments

- (a) A dividend, bonus, return of capital, or other distribution payable by the company in respect of a share may be paid by cheque drawn in favour of the intended recipient, by electronic funds transfer to an account nominated by the intended recipient, or in any other manner determined by the directors. Any such payment will be at the risk of the intended recipient. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a payment in respect of a share may be made to the member in whose name the share is registered despite the occurrence of a transmission event in relation to that member and whether or not the company has notice of it.
- (b) Payments in respect of a share by the company may be made in Australian dollars or any other currency determined by the directors. The directors may determine to pay in different currencies to different members and may determine the appropriate exchange rate and the time of calculation to calculate the amount payable in the relevant currency. The determinations of the directors are, in the absence of manifest error, final.
- (c) In addition to payments in different currencies, different payment methods may be used for different members.
- (d) Where a payment to a member is by cheque, the cheque may be posted to the member in the same way a notice may be sent to the member by post under rule 13.
- (e) Where:
 - (1) a cheque for an amount payable by the company is not presented for payment within 3 months, the cheque may be cancelled by the company; or
 - (2) an electronic funds transfer of an amount payable by the company is unsuccessful as a result of incorrect details being provided by or on behalf of the intended recipient;

the amount may be treated by the company as an unclaimed amount and, subject to the Corporations Act, invested or otherwise used by or for the benefit of the company until claimed or may be disposed of according to law.

1.6 ASX Listing Rules compliance

If the company is admitted to the official list of ASX, the following applies:

- (a) Nothing contained in this constitution prevents an act being done that the ASX Listing Rules require to be done.
- (b) If the ASX Listing Rules require an act to be done or not to be done, authority is given for that act to be done or not to be done (as the case may be).
- (c) Where at any time any shares in the capital of the company are restricted securities, then notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution or their terms of issue:
 - (1) the restricted securities cannot be sold, assigned, transferred or otherwise disposed of, and the company must not acknowledge, deal with, accept or register any sale, assignment, transfer or other disposal of the restricted securities, during the escrow period in relation to those securities except as permitted by the ASX Listing Rules, ASX or the restriction agreement in relation to those securities;
 - (2) in the event of a breach of the ASX Listing Rules relating to the restricted securities, or a restriction agreement in relation to the restricted securities, the member holding the restricted securities will cease to be entitled to any dividends or other distributions and to any voting rights in respect of the restricted securities for so long as the breach subsists;
 - (3) each member holding the restricted securities must enter into, and to the extent required under the ASX Listing Rules must procure each controller of the member to enter into, a restriction agreement with the company in relation to those securities on the terms and by the time required under the ASX Listing Rules; and
 - (4) each member required to enter into a restriction agreement with the company in relation to the member's restricted securities will be taken to have appointed the company and each officer of the company jointly and severally as the member's attorney in the member's name and on the member's behalf to execute and deliver the restriction agreement and all deeds, instruments, and other documents and to do all other acts and things which the company considers necessary or appropriate to effect or comply with the restrictions on disposal under the restriction agreement, the ASX Listing Rules or this rule 1.6(c) in relation to those securities.
- (d) Each director must disclose to the company the notifiable interests of the director and changes to those notifiable interests in sufficient time to allow the company to meet its disclosure obligations under rule 3.19A of the ASX Listing Rules. The company is authorised to give that information to ASX:
 - (1) for the purposes of meeting its disclosure obligations under rule 3.19A of the ASX Listing Rules; and

- (2) as agent for the director for the purposes of the director meeting his or her disclosure obligations under section 205G of the Corporations Act, and the company must do so promptly after receiving the information so that, if possible, the time limits for giving the information to ASX are met.

- (e) In this constitution, unless the context otherwise requires, a term used in a rule about a matter dealt with by a provision of the ASX Listing Rules has the same meaning as in that provision.

2. Share capital

2.1 Shares

- (a) Without prejudice to any special right conferred on a holder of a share or class of shares, the directors may issue, grant options for, or otherwise dispose of, shares in the company as the directors think fit.
- (b) The directors' discretion includes, but is not limited to, terms on:
 - (1) price, conditions, and timing;
 - (2) a special right or restriction which may be preferred or deferred; and
 - (3) dividends, voting, return of capital, and participation in the property of the company on a winding up.
- (c) The directors may differentiate between each holder of a partly paid share on:
 - (1) the amount of a call that member must pay; and
 - (2) the time the member must pay that amount.

2.2 Preference shares

- (a) The directors may issue preference shares including preference shares which are liable to be redeemed.
- (b) A preference share may confer on its holder a right to receive a preferential dividend at the rate and on the basis decided by the directors under the terms of issue.
- (c) The preferential dividend is cumulative except to the extent the directors decide under the terms of issue.
- (d) A preference share confers on its holder the right to payment out of the profits of the company (or any other permitted source) of the preferential dividend in priority to the payment of any dividend on ordinary shares, and any other class of shares that the directors decide under the terms of issue.
- (e) A preference share confers on its holder the right in a winding up to payment in cash of:
 - (1) the amount of any dividend accrued at the date of the winding up but unpaid on the share; and

- (2) any amount paid on the share;

in priority to the payment of any amount on ordinary shares, and any other class of shares that the directors decide under the terms of issue.

- (f) If and to the extent that the directors decide under the terms of issue, a preference share may confer on its holder:
 - (1) in addition to or instead of any preferential dividend, a right to participate with the ordinary shares in any dividends payable on ordinary shares; and
 - (2) a right to a bonus issue or capitalisation of profits or any other amount otherwise available for distribution to members.
- (g) A preference share does not confer on its holder any right to participate in the profits or property of the company except as set out in this rule 2.2.
- (h) The holder of a preference share has the same right as the holder of an ordinary share to receive notice of, and a copy of any document to be laid before, a general meeting of the company at which a resolution is proposed on which the holder is entitled to vote, and to attend the general meeting, but has no right to receive notice of, or a copy of, any document to be laid before, or to attend, any other general meeting of the company except to the extent the terms of issue of the preference share otherwise provided.
- (i) A preference share does not entitle its holder to vote at a general meeting of the company except to the extent the terms of issue permit the holder to vote in the following circumstances
 - (1) During a period during which a dividend (or part of a dividend) in respect of the share is in arrears.
 - (2) On a proposal to reduce the company's share capital.
 - (3) On a resolution to approve the terms of a buy-back agreement.
 - (4) On a proposal that affects rights attached to the share.
 - (5) On a proposal to wind up the company.
 - (6) On a proposal for the disposal of the whole of the company's property, business and undertaking.
 - (7) During the winding up of the company.

Where the ASX Listing Rules require the holder of a preference share to be entitled to vote in any of the above circumstances, a preference share must not be issued on terms which preclude the holder from voting in that circumstance whilst the company is admitted to the official list.

- (j) Where a preference share does confer on its holder the right to vote at a general meeting, the voting right is the same, and determined in the same way, as the voting right attached to an ordinary share.

- (k) Preference shares may be convertible into ordinary shares on a basis decided by the directors under the terms of issue. Unless the terms of issue otherwise provide, a convertible preference share may be converted into an ordinary share by the company notifying the holder of the conversion. Upon the company giving the holder notification of the conversion, or if a later date is specified as the date of conversion, on that later date, the convertible preference share will be converted into, and will be reclassified and known as, an ordinary share. The conversion will be effected by, and will result in, the rights attached to the convertible preference share being varied to be the same as the rights attached to an ordinary share, not by redemption and new issue or any other cancellation of the share or creation of a new share. The holder of a convertible preference share that is to be converted must return the certificate for the share (if any) to the company for cancellation as soon as reasonably practicable after being requested to do so, but is not required to return the certificate earlier than 3 business days before the proposed date of conversion. The conversion may be deferred until the company receives the certificate.
- (l) A redeemable preference share may be redeemable on a basis decided by the directors under the terms of issue. The holder of a redeemable preference share that is to be redeemed must return the certificate for the share (if any) to the company for cancellation as soon as reasonably practicable after being requested to do so, but is not required to return the certificate earlier than 3 business days before the proposed date of redemption. Payment of the amount payable for redemption of the share may be deferred until the company receives the certificate.
- (m) Subject to the Corporations Act and this constitution, all rights and restrictions of a preference share issued by the company may be decided by the directors and will be governed by the terms of issue, and provided they have been disclosed to the subscriber for the share before its issue will bind the subscriber and all subsequent holders of the share.

2.3 Issue of shares of same class

Subject to any special right conferred on a holder of a share or class of shares, the directors may issue shares of the same class as an existing class of shares, and such an issue is not to be considered to constitute a variation of the rights of the holders of shares in the existing class.

2.4 Joint holders of shares

- (a) If 2 or more persons are registered as the holders of a share, then they hold it as joint tenants with rights of survivorship subject to this rule 2.4.
- (b) A joint holder of a share and that person's legal personal representative is liable severally as well as jointly for each payment, including a call, which ought to be made in respect of the share.
- (c) On the death of any 1 joint holder of a share, a survivor is the only person the company recognises as having any title to the share.
- (d) A dividend, bonus, return of capital or other distribution or payment in respect of a jointly held share may be made to the joint holder of the share first named in the register of members or another joint holder notified in writing to the company for this purpose by all joint holders, and any 1 joint holder may give an effective receipt for any such distribution or payment.

- (e) Delivery of a certificate for a jointly held share to any 1 joint holder of the share is sufficient, and taken to be, delivery to all joint holders.
- (f) The company is not bound to register more than 3 persons as joint holders of a share except in the case of persons jointly entitled to be registered as the holders of a share following a transmission event.

2.5 Equitable and other claims

Subject to the law and an express rule in this constitution, the company is entitled to treat the registered holder of a share as the absolute owner of that share, and is not, even if the company has notice:

- (a) obliged to recognise a person as holding a share on any trust; or
- (b) obliged to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial claim to or interest in a share on the part of any other person.

2.6 Employee share ownership plans

The directors may:

- (a) adopt and implement any employee share ownership plan; and
- (b) amend, suspend or terminate any employee share ownership plan they implement.

3. Calls, forfeiture, indemnities, lien and surrender

3.1 Calls

- (a) Subject to this constitution and to the terms of issue of a share, the directors may call upon a member for any money unpaid on a share which is not by the terms of issue, payable at a fixed time.
- (b) The directors may require a member to pay a call by instalments.
- (c) The company must give the member at least 14 days notice to pay a call.
- (d) The notice must specify:
 - (1) the amount that the member must pay; and
 - (2) the time and the place of payment.
- (e) Each member must pay the amount stated in the notice in the manner set out in the notice.
- (f) A call is made when the directors pass the resolution authorising the call (or at such later time as the directors may determine).
- (g) The directors may revoke or postpone a call.

- (h) The directors may extend the time for payment.
- (i) A call is valid, even if:
 - (1) a member does not receive a notice of a call; or
 - (2) the company omits to give a member a notice of a call.
- (j) If a person does not pay a sum called for a share in full by the due date, then the person must pay:
 - (1) interest on the sum that is unpaid from and including the due date for payment to the date of actual payment; and
 - (2) any costs, expenses or damages, which the company incurs for the non-payment or late payment of the sum.
- (k) If under the terms of issue, a sum unpaid on a share becomes payable on issue or at a fixed date, then:
 - (1) the sum is payable as if the company has duly made and notified a call; and
 - (2) the person must pay the sum on the date on which it is payable under the terms of issue of the share.

3.2 Proceedings for recovery of calls

- (a) The following is conclusive evidence of a debt in any proceedings for the recovery of a call amount, interest, costs, or expenses that the company incurs following the non-payment or late payment of a call:
 - (1) the name of the defendant is entered in the register as the holder or one of the holders of the share for which the call is claimed;
 - (2) the resolution making the call is recorded in the minute book; and
 - (3) notice of the call was duly given to the defendant.
- (b) It is not necessary to prove any matter, including the appointment of the directors who made the call.
- (c) In this rule 3.2 a defendant may include, but is not limited to, a person against whom the company alleges a set-off or counter-claim.

3.3 Payments in advance of calls

- (a) The directors may accept from a member an amount unpaid on a share, even if the company has not called that amount.
- (b) The directors may authorise the company to pay interest on an amount accepted under rule 3.3(a):
 - (1) until the amount becomes payable; and

- (2) at a rate agreed between the directors and the member paying the amount.
- (c) The directors may repay to a member any of the amount accepted under rule 3.3(a).

3.4 Forfeiture of partly paid shares

- (a) If a member fails to pay the whole of a call or instalment of a call by the time appointed for payment, then the directors may serve a notice on that member requiring payment of:
 - (1) the amount which is unpaid;
 - (2) any interest that has accrued; and
 - (3) all costs, expenses, and damages that the company has incurred because of the non-payment or late payment of the call or instalment.
- (b) In the notice, the directors may:
 - (1) name a further day and a place at which the member must pay the amount payable; and
 - (2) state, that if the member does not pay the whole of the amount as required, then the member is liable to forfeit the shares for which the company made the call.
- (c) The directors must give a member at least 14 days after the date of service to pay.
- (d) If the member does not comply with the notice, then the directors may resolve to forfeit any share for which the notice was given:
 - (1) at any time after the day named in the notice; but
 - (2) before the member pays.
- (e) If a member forfeits a share, then the forfeiture includes all dividends, interest, and other money payable by the company for the forfeited share which is not paid before the forfeiture.
- (f) If the company forfeits a share, then it must:
 - (1) give notice of the resolution to the member in whose name the share stood immediately before the forfeiture; and
 - (2) enter the forfeiture and the date of forfeiture in the register of members.
- (g) The forfeiture is valid even if the company fails to give the notice or to make the entry.
- (h) A forfeited share becomes the property of the company.
- (i) The directors may sell, reissue, or otherwise dispose of the share as they think fit.
- (j) The directors may reissue or dispose of the share, with or without any money paid on the share by any former holder being credited as paid up.

- (k) A person whose share is forfeited:
 - (1) ceases to be a member for the forfeited share; but
 - (2) remains liable to pay, and must immediately pay, to the company:

 - (B) interest on any amount payable which is unpaid from and including the date of the forfeiture, to the date of actual payment.
- (l) Subject to an express provision in this constitution, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes for that share:
 - (1) all interest in the company;
 - (2) all claims and demands against the company; and
 - (3) all other rights attached to the share.

3.5 Indemnity for payments by the company

If the company becomes liable under any law to make any payment:

- (f) reimburse the company for any payment made under or as a consequence of that law immediately on demand by the company; and

- (g) pay interest on so much of the amount payable to the company under rule 3.5(f) as is unpaid from and including the date the company makes a payment under that law until the date the company is reimbursed in full for that payment.

 - (1) an amount of a call or instalment which is due but unpaid on the share;
 - (2) if the share were acquired under an employee incentive scheme, an amount which is owed to the company for acquiring it; and
 - (3) an amount that the company is required by law to pay (and has paid) in respect of the share or for or on account of a holder or deceased former holder of the share and which is owed to the company.
- (b) The company's lien on a share extends to all dividends, reasonable interest and other money payable by the company on or in respect of the share or for or on account or in respect of the holder of the share and to the proceeds of sale of the share.
- (c) The directors as they think fit may sell any share on which the company has a lien if:

 - (A) setting out each amount for which the lien exists which is presently payable; and
 - (B) demanding the payment before the date of the sale of that amount.
- (d) If the company registers a transfer of shares on which the company has a lien without giving to the transferee notice of its claim, then the company releases its lien in so far as it relates to sums owing by the transferor or any predecessor in title.

- (b) The directors may accept a surrender of a share by way of compromise:
 - (1) of any claim about whether or not that share has been validly issued; or
 - (2) in any other case, if the surrender is within the powers of the company.

- (c) The directors may sell, reissue, or otherwise dispose of a surrendered share in the same manner as they may for a forfeited share.

3.8 General provisions applicable to a disposal of shares under this constitution

 - (4) register the person to whom they have transferred the shares as the holder of the shares.
- (b) A person to whom the directors transfer a share is not bound to consider:
 - (1) the regularity or validity of purchase money or consideration; or
 - (2) how the company applies the purchase money or consideration.
- (c) A person's title to a share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in:
 - (1) the forfeiture or surrender of a share; or
 - (2) the exercise of the company's lien on a share.
- (d) The remedy of a person aggrieved by a disposal of shares under this constitution:
 - (1) is limited to damages only; and

3.9 Interest payable by member

Where interest is payable to the company by a member under this rule 2.6, the rate of interest is 8% per annum, or such other rate as the directors fix and the interest accrues daily, and may be capitalised monthly or at such other intervals as the directors determine.

4. Distributions

4.1 Dividends

- (a) The directors may resolve that the company pay any interim and final dividend as the financial position of the company justifies.
- (b) The directors may resolve that the company pay any dividend payable under the terms of issue of a share.
- (c) The payment of a dividend does not require any confirmation by a general meeting.
- (d) Subject to this constitution and to any rights or restrictions attached to a share or class of shares, or to the terms of any dividend selection plan established by the directors, all dividends on shares are to be paid in proportion to the number of shares held by members except that:
 - (1) a partly paid share will only entitle the holder to a fraction of the dividend payable on a fully paid share equal to the proportion of the total amounts paid and payable on the share which have been paid; and
 - (2) if dividends are determined by the directors to be paid in respect of a specified period and if the directors also determine that the dividends on any shares are to be further apportioned according to when amounts are paid on those shares during the specified period, an amount which is paid on a relevant share during the specified period will only entitle the holder of the share to a fraction of the dividend that would otherwise be payable in respect of that amount equal to the proportion of the specified period remaining as at the date of payment of that amount.

- (e) For the purposes of determining the above fractions:
 - (1) an amount paid on a share in advance of a call or credited on a share otherwise than for value must be ignored; and
 - (2) if under the terms of issue of a share, the consideration for the share is or includes the provision of property or services or some other non-monetary consideration, the value of the non-monetary consideration provided or to be provided as determined by the directors will be taken to be the amount paid or payable (as the case may be) on the share.
- (f) The company must not pay interest on any dividend.
- (g) The directors may fix a record date for a dividend.
- (h) The company must pay a dividend to the person who is registered as the holder of the share on the record date or, if one has not been fixed, on the date payment of the dividend is to be sent to members.
- (i) The company must pay the dividend on the date fixed for payment of the dividend (if any).
- (j) The directors when determining a dividend is payable may:
 - (1) direct payment of the dividend wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets, including paid-up shares or other securities of the company or of another body corporate, either generally or to particular shareholders or in respect of particular shares; and
 - (2) direct that the dividend be paid:
 - (A) to particular shareholders or in respect of particular shares, wholly or partly out of any particular fund or reserve or out of profits derived from any particular source; and
 - (B) to the remaining shareholders or in respect of the remaining shares, wholly or partly out of any other particular fund or reserve or out of profits derived from any other particular source or generally.
- (k) The company may deduct from any dividend payable to a member:
 - (1) all sums of money presently payable by the member to the company; and
 - (2) apply the amount deducted in or towards satisfaction of the money owing.
- (l) If a person is entitled to a share as a result of a transmission event, then the company may, but is not obliged to, retain any dividend payable in respect of that share until that person becomes registered as the holder of the share or transfers it.
- (m) The directors may rescind or alter a resolution in relation to payment of a dividend at any time prior to the payment being made.

4.2 Capitalisation of profits and other amounts

- (a) The directors may resolve that the company capitalise any amount:
- (1) forming part of the undivided profits of the company;
 - (2) representing profits arising from an ascertained accretion to capital or from a revaluation of the assets of the company;
 - (3) arising from the realisation of any assets of the company; or
 - (4) otherwise available for distribution to members
 - (5) and may also resolve that the capitalised amount be paid, applied or otherwise distributed to or for the benefit of members.
- (b) Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to a share or class of shares or to the terms of any dividend selection plan established by the directors, a capitalised amount under rule 4.2(a) which is to be distributed to or for the benefit of members, must be distributed in the same proportions in which members would be entitled to receive the amount were it a dividend.
- (c) The directors may resolve that all or part of the capitalised amount is to be applied:
- (1) to pay in full a share or security that the company intends to issue to a member;
 - (2) to pay an amount unpaid on a share or security of the company which a member holds; or
 - (3) a combination of these;
- and the member must accept this application in full satisfaction of the member's interest in the capitalised amount.
- (d) Rules 4.1(g) to (l) apply to the distribution of a capitalised amount as if it were a dividend.

4.3 Additional powers

- (a) To give effect to a resolution of directors or members authorising or approving the payment of a dividend or the making of any other distribution (whether of profits or capital or otherwise) or the capitalisation of any amount, the directors may:
- (1) settle any difficulty that may arise in making the distribution or capitalisation;
 - (2) fix the value for distribution of a specific asset;
 - (3) pay cash or issue a share or other security to a member to adjust the rights of all parties;
 - (4) vest a specific asset, cash, share, or other security in any trustee on trust for a person entitled to a dividend or capitalised amount; and

- (5) authorise a person to make, on behalf of all the members entitled to any further share or security following the distribution or capitalisation, an agreement with the company or another body corporate.
- (b) The authorised person may agree to:
 - (1) the issue of further shares or securities credited as fully paid up; or
 - (2) the company paying on behalf of the members an amount remaining unpaid on their existing shares or security by the application of their respective proportions of the sum distributed or capitalised.
- (c) Any agreement made between the directors and an authorised person is effective and binding on all members concerned.
- (d) If the company distributes securities in the company, or in another body corporate or trust, each member receiving a distribution appoints the company as that person's agent to do anything needed to give effect to that distribution, including but not limited to, becoming a member of that other body corporate.
- (e) Rule 4.3(d) applies whether the distribution:
 - (1) is generally to members or to specific members;
 - (2) is as a dividend or otherwise; and

- (b) The member must use an instrument in any usual form or in a form that the directors approve.
- (c) An instrument of transfer must be signed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee, unless:

The directors may at any time suspend the registration of a transfer for any period not exceeding 30 days in a year.

5.4 Transmission of shares

 - (1) the legal personal representative of the deceased, if the deceased was a sole holder; and
 - (2) the survivor or survivors, if the deceased was a joint holder.

 - (1) sign a written notice stating that the person wishes to register as a shareholder and serve it on the company; or

- (2) the registered holder of the share signed the transfer.
- (f) If 2 or more persons are jointly entitled to a share because of a transmission event, then upon being registered, they:
 - (1) hold the share as joint tenants; and
 - (2) rule 2.4 applies.
- (g) Despite rule 5.4(a), the directors may register a transfer of shares which a member signs prior to a transmission event, even though the company has notice of the transmission event.

5.5 Listed company

- (a) This rule 5.5 only applies whilst the company is admitted to the official list of ASX and rules 5.1 to 5.4 do not apply to the extent that they are inconsistent with this rule 5.5 or the ASX Listing Rules.
- (b) Subject to this constitution, a member may transfer a share:
 - (1) if the share is in a class of shares that are Approved Financial Products as defined in the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, through CHESS in accordance with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules;
 - (2) if another prescribed CS facility is approved by the directors to deal with the transfer of shares of the same class as the member's share, through that facility in accordance with its operating rules; or
 - (3) if another method of transfer is approved by the directors to deal with the transfer of shares of the same class as the member's share and under the Corporations Act or otherwise at law that method is valid and effective to transfer the share, in accordance with that method.

 - (1) a member holds less than a marketable parcel of shares;
 - (2) the company notifies the member in writing that it intends to sell the member's shares after a date (Relevant Date) which is at least 6 weeks from the date the notice of intention to sell is sent, unless the member before the Relevant Date tells the company in writing that the member wishes to retain the shares;

- (f) If a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, then the company must give notice of the adjourned meeting as if it is an original meeting.
- (g) Subject to rule 6.6(f), it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

6.7 Meetings by technological means

- (a) This rule 6.7 applies despite anything else contained in this constitution to the contrary other than rule 1.1(a).
- (b) A general meeting may be held using one or more technologies that give members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting without being physically present in the same place.
- (c) The directors may arrange to hold such a general meeting and may also make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction in connection with participation at the general meeting, including any that is necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part and the security of the facility through which members participate in the meeting.
- (d) Notice of the meeting instead of, or in addition to, specifying the place of the meeting must include information about how those entitled to attend can participate in the meeting (including how they can participate in a vote taken at the meeting, and speak at the meeting, to the extent they are entitled to do so).
- (e) All persons so participating in the meeting are taken for all purposes (including quorum requirements) to be present in person at the meeting while so participating.
- (f) The meeting is held at the multiple venues at which the chair of the meeting and members and representatives of members entitled to participate, and participating, in the meeting are located or at the place determined by the chair of the meeting at which the chair or at least one member or member's representative is located for the duration of the meeting.
- (g) A requirement to allow an opportunity for persons attending the meeting to vote or speak may be complied with by using one or more technologies that allow that opportunity (which may include by allowing a person's vote to be recorded in advance of the meeting and, in relation to speaking, may include by allowing a person to send messages or otherwise communicate by electronic means, either orally or in writing).

- (h) If a technical difficulty occurs which the chair of a general meeting considers prevents those participating or intending to participate in the meeting to have a reasonable opportunity to do so or prevents the chair from being aware of the proceedings at the meeting, the chair may:
 - (1) adjourn the meeting until the technical difficulty is resolved or otherwise addressed to the chair's satisfaction; or
 - (2) continue to hold the meeting in the place where the chair is present (and any other place which is not affected by such technical difficulty) and transact business, and no member may object to the meeting being held or continuing.
- (i) The inability of one or more members or their representatives to participate or continue to participate in a general meeting does not affect the validity of the meeting or the business conducted at the meeting provided that sufficient members or their representatives are able to participate in the meeting as are required to constitute a quorum.
- (j) All other rules relating to the convening or holding of a general meeting apply to the convening and holding of a general meeting in the way permitted under this rule 6.7 with any necessary changes.

6.8 Decisions at general meetings

- (a) Subject to a resolution which as a matter of law requires a special majority:
 - (1) a question arising at a general meeting is decided by a majority of votes cast by the members present; and
 - (2) a majority vote is for all purposes a decision of the members.
- (b) In the case of an equality of votes on any proposed resolution the chair of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- (c) Subject to rule 6.8(d), a resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands.
- (d) Either the chair or a member who is present and can vote on the resolution, may demand a poll:
 - (1) before the vote is taken; or
 - (2) before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands.
- (e) A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- (f) The chair may declare the result of a vote decided on a show of hands.
- (g) Unless a poll is duly demanded:
 - (1) the chair's declaration and an entry to that effect into the minute book is conclusive evidence of the result; and

- (2) further proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution is not required.
- (h) If a poll is duly demanded at a general meeting, the meeting must conduct the poll as the chair directs.
- (i) Subject to rule 6.8(j), the chair may direct that the poll be taken in any manner and either at once, or after an interval or adjournment.
- (j) A poll demanded at a general meeting on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (k) The result of the poll is a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (l) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

6.9 Voting rights

- (a) Subject to this constitution, and to any rights or restrictions attached to a share or class of shares, at a general meeting:
 - (1) on a show of hands, every person present who is a member or a proxy, attorney or representative of a member has one vote; and
 - (2) on a poll, every person present who is a member or a proxy, attorney, or representative of a member has one vote for each share the member holds and which entitles the member to vote, except for partly paid shares, each of which confers on a poll only a fraction of one vote equal to the proportion of the total amounts paid and payable on the share which have been paid.
- (b) For the purposes of determining the above fraction:
 - (1) an amount paid on a share in advance of a call or credited on a share otherwise than for value must be ignored; and
 - (2) if under the terms of issue of a share, the consideration for the share is or includes the provision of property or services or some other non-monetary consideration, the value of the non-monetary consideration provided or to be provided as determined by the directors will be taken to be the amount paid or payable (as the case may be) on the share.
- (c) If a person present at a general meeting represents more than one member:
 - (1) on a show of hands, the person is entitled to one vote only, despite the number of members the person represents;
 - (2) that vote is cast for all the members the person represents; and
 - (3) the person must not exercise that vote in a way which would contravene any directions given to the person in any instrument appointing the person as a proxy or attorney.
- (d) A joint holder may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy, attorney, or representative as if that person was the sole holder.

- (e) If more than one joint holder tenders a vote, then the vote of the holder named first in the register is accepted to the exclusion of any other.
- (f) The parent or guardian of an infant member may vote at any general meeting upon producing evidence of the relationship or of the appointment as the directors may require.
- (g) A vote by a parent or guardian of an infant member is accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the infant member.
- (h) A person entitled to a share as a result of a transmission event may vote at a general meeting as if that person were the registered holder of the share if, before the meeting, the directors:
 - (1) admit that person's right to vote at that meeting for the share; or
 - (2) are satisfied that person has a right to be registered as the holder of, or to transfer, the share under rule 5.4(c).
- (i) A vote tendered by a person under rule 6.9(h) is accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the registered holder of the share.
- (j) A member is entitled to vote at a general meeting only if all calls and other sums of money, presently payable by that member for shares in the company, are paid.
- (k) A person must raise an objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:
 - (1) before or at the meeting at which the vote is given; and
 - (2) by referring it to the chair of the meeting.
- (l) The chair's decision about a person's qualification to vote is final.
- (m) A vote the chair allows under rule 6.9(h) is valid for all purposes.

6.10 Representation at general meeting

- (a) Subject to this constitution, each member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may vote:
 - (1) in person or if a member is a body corporate by its representative;
 - (2) by not more than 2 proxies; or
 - (3) by not more than 2 attorneys.
- (b) A proxy, attorney, or representative may, but need not be a member.
- (c) A proxy, attorney, or representative may be appointed for:
 - (1) all or any number of general meetings; or
 - (2) a particular general meeting.

- (d) Subject to the Corporations Act and to the terms of appointment, an appointment confers on a proxy, attorney, or representative the same rights as the appointor:
 - (1) to agree to a meeting to which the appointment applies, being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Corporations Act or by this constitution;
 - (2) to attend and speak at a meeting to which the appointment applies;
 - (3) to vote on any procedural motion at a meeting to which the appointment applies, including any motion to elect the chair, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the meeting;
 - (4) to vote on any other motion or resolution (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
 - (5) to demand or join in demanding a poll at a meeting to which the appointment applies.
- (e) Subject to the Corporations Act and to the terms of appointment, if the proxy, attorney, or representative may vote on a proposed resolution, then the appointment also confers authority to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolution and on any motion that the proposed resolution not be put or any similar motion.
- (f) Subject to the Corporations Act and to the terms of appointment, if an appointment confers authority to attend, speak, vote, or do anything else at a meeting that is to be held at a specified time or venue and the meeting is rescheduled or adjourned or changed to another venue, then the appointment confers authority to do the same things at the rescheduled or adjourned meeting or meeting at the new venue.
- (g) If a member appoints 2 proxies or attorneys:
 - (1) and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the member's votes each proxy or attorney may exercise, each proxy or attorney may exercise half of the member's voting rights; and
 - (2) neither person may vote on a show of hands.
- (h) An appointment of a proxy or attorney may specify the way the proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution.
- (i) If the appointment does specify the way the proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution:
 - (1) the proxy or attorney need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy or attorney does so, the proxy or attorney must vote that way;
 - (2) if the proxy or attorney has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution, the proxy or attorney must not vote on a show of hands;
 - (3) if the proxy or attorney is the chair of the meeting at which the resolution is voted on, the proxy or attorney must vote on a poll, and must vote that way, and

- (4) if the proxy or attorney is not the chair, the proxy or attorney need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy or attorney does so, the proxy or attorney must vote that way.

provided that if the proxy or attorney is also a member, nothing in this rule affects the way the person can cast any votes the person has as a member.

- (j) An appointment of a proxy or attorney is valid if it is signed or otherwise authenticated in a manner approved by the directors by the member making the appointment, and contains such information and is in such form as may be required by the directors. Otherwise, the appointment is not required to contain any particular information or be in any particular form. For the avoidance of doubt, a proxy may be appointed using one or more technologies specified in the notice of meeting.

- (k) An appointment of a proxy or attorney for a meeting of members will only be effective if:

- (1) the appointment; and
- (2) if the appointment is signed or otherwise authenticated in a manner approved by the directors by the appointor's attorney, the authority under which the appointment is signed or authenticated or a certified copy of the authority; are received by the company at least 48 hours before the meeting or any lesser period provided in the notice of meeting, unless the directors otherwise determine.

- (l) The appointment and any authority will be received by the company when received at:

- (1) the company's registered office;
- (2) a fax number at the company's registered office; or
- (3) a place, fax number or electronic address (if any) specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.

If the notice of meeting specifies other electronic means approved by the directors by which a member may give to the company an appointment or authority, the document will also be received by the company when the document given by those means is received by the company in the manner approved by the directors.

- (m) The directors may accept upon the production of other evidence:

- (1) an oral appointment of a proxy or attorney;
- (2) an appointment of a proxy or attorney which is not signed by the appointor or the appointor's attorney; and
- (3) a copy of any document, including a copy sent by fax or email.

- (n) A vote at a meeting by a proxy or attorney is valid despite:

- (1) a transmission event having occurred in relation to the appointor;

- (2) the appointor revoking the instrument of appointment or the authority under which the instrument was executed; or
- (3) the transfer of the share for which the instrument was given not having been registered; provided that the company does not receive written notice of such an event before the meeting commenced.

- (o) The appointment of a proxy or attorney is not revoked by the appointor attending and taking part in the general meeting.
- (p) The proxy or attorney must not vote as the appointor's proxy or attorney if the appointor votes on a resolution.
- (q) Where an instrument intended for the appointment of a proxy does not specify the name of a proxy the instrument is not for that reason invalid and is to be taken to be given in favour of the chair of the meeting.

6.11 Direct voting

- (a) This rule 6.11 applies despite anything else contained in this constitution to the contrary other than rule 1.1(a).
- (b) The directors may permit direct voting on resolutions proposed at a general meeting by allowing members entitled to vote on the resolution to cast their vote without being present (whether in person or by proxy or other representative) at the meeting.
- (c) The directors may determine rules and procedures for direct voting, including those members entitled to cast a direct vote, the manner in which a direct vote may be cast, the circumstances in which a direct vote will be valid and the effect of a member casting both a direct vote and a vote in any other manner.
- (d) Subject to rules 6.11(e) and (f), where notice of a general meeting specifies that direct voting on a resolution proposed for consideration at the meeting is permitted by members or particular members, a direct vote cast by or on behalf of such a member in accordance with the rules and procedures for direct voting determined by the directors (whether set out in the notice of meeting or otherwise) is taken to have been validly cast by that member at the meeting.
- (e) A direct vote cast by or on behalf of a member on a resolution proposed at a general meeting is of no effect and will be disregarded if the member is not entitled to vote on the resolution at the meeting or, had the vote been cast by or on behalf of the member at the meeting, the company would be required to disregard the vote:
- (f) Subject to the rules and procedures for direct voting determined by the directors, if a direct vote is cast by or on behalf of a member on a resolution proposed for consideration at a general meeting and a vote is also cast on the resolution by the member or the member's proxy or other representative present at the meeting, the company may:
 - (1) regard the direct vote as valid and effective and disregard the vote cast at the meeting; or

- (2) disregard the direct vote and regard the vote cast at the meeting as valid and effective.

6.12 Separate class meetings

If at any time a meeting of a class of members of the company is required or proposed, rules 6.1 to 6.11 will apply so far as they are capable of application (and with all necessary changes) to that meeting.

- (h) Rule 7.1(g) does not apply to the managing director who is exempted from having to retire by rotation or otherwise at an annual general meeting (but if there is more than one managing director, only one is exempted from having to retire under rule 7.1(g)).
- (i) A retiring director is eligible for election (or re-election).
- (j) The company may, at a general meeting at which a director is due to retire, by resolution elect a person as a director to fill the office to be vacated.

- (l) Where a majority of all directors consider that the continuance in office of a director would be, or would be likely to be, prejudicial to the interests of the company, the director may be suspended by resolution passed by that majority at a meeting of directors specifically convened for the purpose of considering the suspension. The suspended director may not take part in the business or affairs of the company during the period of suspension. The suspension may be terminated at any time by a resolution passed by a majority of all directors at a meeting of directors specifically convened for the purpose of considering termination of the suspension. The suspension will terminate at the end of 14 days from the date of the suspension unless within that period notice of a general meeting of the company to consider a resolution to remove the director from office is despatched to members and the meeting is convened to be held within 35 days from the date of despatch. In that case, the suspension will terminate at the conclusion of the meeting.

7.2 Vacation of office

- (e) if the director is absent (and not represented by an alternate director) from meetings of directors for at least 4 consecutive months and the directors do not resolve to grant the director leave of absence from those meetings at or before the next meeting of directors after written notice of the absence has been given to the directors by the secretary, at the end of that meeting.

7.3 Remuneration and expenses

 - (1) the director's remuneration must not include a commission on, or percentage of, operating revenue; and
 - (2) if the director is a non-executive director, the director's remuneration paid must be a fixed sum.
- (b) The aggregate remuneration paid to or for the benefit of the directors (including any payments made in respect of superannuation contributions) must not exceed in a financial year of the company $650,000 or such other sum as the members may by resolution approve. This limitation does not apply to:
 - (1) any remuneration in the form of share, option or other incentive plans that involve the acquisition by the director of securities of the Company that are approved separately by the Company's members;
 - (2) any amount paid or payable under rule 7.3(d) or (e);
 - (3) any amount paid or payable under or in respect of any indemnification or insurance provided or procured in accordance with rule 9; or

Any amount paid or payable under this rule 7.3(f) is not subject to the limitation under rule 7.3(b).

7.4 Share qualification

A director is not required to hold any shares in the company to qualify for appointment and is entitled to attend and speak at general meetings even if that director is not a member.

 - (1) the failure occurred by accident or error; or
 - (2) the person waives notice of the meeting.

7.10 Quorum at meetings of directors
